Marty & Joe for 25 Years of
Reds on Radio

Marty & Joe

It all began on March 9, 1974. The Reds opened their spring training schedule that season against the Pittsburgh Pirates at McKechnie Field in Bradenton, FL. The 2:00 pm contest would feature the defending NL West champion Reds

- the Big Red Machine - Bench, Rose, Perez, Morgan, Concepcion, and the like. The list of household names was endless.

But, as the game got underway with the first pitch that afternoon on 700 WLW, Reds' fans across the country were introduced to the new season by a new voice which would become just as familiar as many Reds' players - that of Marty Brennaman.

Although just a spring training contest, the day would mark the beginning of one of the most successful and entertaining tandems in all of sports broadcasting history. The legend of Marty and Joe was born.

A somewhat unlikely duo, the two were united in the broadcast booth having come from very different backgrounds. Marty was a 31-year-old rising star who had gained his broadcasting experience by earning a collegiate degree in the field and then working his way up through the ranks of the business. Following many stops and three successful seasons as play-by-play announcer for the Triple-A Tidewater Tides, he made his way to the major leagues.

Joe Nuxhall was entering his eighth season as a Reds' commentator in 1974, this after a 16-year major league pitching career which included 15 seasons with the Reds. His experiences in the game

Point, NC as the morning news and sports anchor on WGHP-TV. He then moved on to WSTP radio in Salisbury, NC, where he handled play-by-play broadcasts Catawba College football and basketball for five seasons, and also called high school football, basketball and American Legion baseball. In 1970, Marty made his way to WTAR Radio in Norfolk, VA to cover the Virginia Squires of the ABA, and Tidewater Tides, the New York Mets' top farm club. Prior to joining the Reds in 1974, he spent one season as the voice of William and Mary college football and one season calling Virginia Tech football.

"I feel privileged to be chosen as the new voice of the Reds," said Marty on January 21, 1974 when he was named to the position after being selected from more than 200 applicants. "An announcer working in the minor leagues dreams of this opportunity. Major league baseball is the best job in my business and if somebody could hand-pick the situation he wanted, I can't think of a better one than here in Cincinnati."

Known for his ability to tell it like it is and his unbiased opinions, Marty always keeps his audience entertained. He takes great pride in making his broadcasts fun for the listener.

"I realize our broadcasts are different than most, but that is because Joe and I do not treat the game like life or death. It's a fun game to watch, and should be a fun game to listen to and I want to make sure our fans have fun when they tune in on their radios."

Before he was allowed to drive a car, Joe Nuxhall had already made his debut in the major leagues. On June 10, 1944, at the age of 15, the Hamilton, OH native became the youngest player ever to appear in a major league game - a record that stands to this day. Joe was offered a contract to play for the Reds for $175.00 a month. And, because he was still in school, it was arranged that he would only suit up for Reds home games. Little did he know that would be the beginning of a memorable career. In 1967, at the memorable career. In 1967, at the age of 38, Joe officially retired from the game of baseball and became a member of the Reds' broadcasting team. On July 12, 1968 during a ceremony at Crosley Field, Joe was officially inducted into the Reds Hall of Fame.

"It has been a tremendous joy and a lot of fun to work with Marty these past 25 seasons," said Joe. "We have shared a lot of great times and a lot of good memories."

In 1998, Marty and Joe celebrate their 25th season together on the Reds radio network. Only one current major league duo has been together longer - the Cardinals' Jack Buck and Mike Sh-

Marty Brennaman's Most Memorable Moments:

Pete Rose's hit #4192 - 9/11/85.
Tony Perez's game-winning homer - 7/25/74.
Tom Browning's perfect game - 9/16/88.
Tom Seaver's no-hitter - 6/16/78
Eric Davis' two-run homer in the 1st inning of Game 1 of 1990 World Series - 10/16/90.

Joe Nuxhall's Most Memorable Moments:

Pete Rose's hit #4192 - 9/11/85. Johnny Bench's homer on "Johnny Bench Night" at Riverfront Stadium - 9/17/83 1990 World Series - Joe's only World Series covered.

Pete Rose's 44-game hitting streak - 1978 Joe Oliver's game-winning hit in the 10th inning of Game 2 of 1990 World Series.

annon will start their 27th season together in 1998. Marty and Joe share second place on the current longevity list with Kansas City's tandem of Denny Matthews and Fred White.

The chemistry between the two is unmatched, and the stories they share are truly unforgettable. Reds fans across the country have grown accustomed to their unique style of praise.

accustomed to their unique style of praise, criticism, and honest reporting. Thank goodness these two belong to the Reds.

MARGE SCHOTT President & CEO

Entertainment has been the top priority during Mrs. Schott's tenure as owner of the Reds. A native and sixth-generation resident of Cincinnati, Mrs. Schott was a Limited Partner in the team beginning in 1981, and then became the General Partner of the ownership group on December 21, 1984. She became President and Chief Executive Officer July 8, 1985.

Mrs. Schott has helped bring back the excitement of Reds' baseball to the banks of the Ohio River. She has provided the leadership and financial support needed to build a winning team, while keeping ticket prices among the lowest in the major leagues. The Reds have drawn more than 25 million fans to Riverfront in her 13 years as the club's principal owner. Season ticket sales have reached new team highs.

Mrs. Schott saw her dream come true in 1990 when her Reds went "wire-to-wire" to win the National League Western Division championship and then went on to capture the N.L. pennant, followed by a stunning World Series sweep over Oakland.

Mrs. Schott led the Reds' World Series victory parade at Fountain Square in downtown Cincinnati and she headed the team's contingent honored by President George Bush at the White House following the Series.

In addition to the enjoyment of watching the Reds on the field, Mrs. Schott has had some thrills away from the stadium as well.

In 1989, she had lunch at the White House with President Bush; was a special honoree at a Women in Business luncheon during the President's Inauguration Week festivities; and has made two baseball goodwill visits to Japan, representing Cincinnati and the Reds.

Among other highlights were a 1988 visit to the Vatican, where she presented the Pope with a Reds' jacket; a feature interview on the "60 Minutes" TV show; and a salute by Savvy magazine as the operator of one of the 40 largest businesses in the country headed by a woman.

In December, 1986, she was among 85 women entrepreneurs from all over the country who were honored by President Ronald Reagan at a White House reception. Earlier that year, she was named Woman of the Year by the American Legion Auxiliary at its national convention. Mrs. Schott was singled out for having made significant contributions to community life. She was inducted into the Communiplex Women's Hall of Fame for women in sports in 1987 and received an honorary degree from Maryville College in St. Louis in 1991.

Mrs. Schott was inducted into the Ohio Women's Hall of Fame in November, 1985, for her achievements in business, industry and athletics. A year earlier, she was honored as one of the 1984 Women of the Year in Cincinnati. She is well-known for her role as hostess for the Reds' Rally, a major fund-raiser for the Children's Heart Association at Children's Hospital, and for her work with the famed Cincinnati Zoo. She is the Honorary Chairman of the Zoo's Education Program.

Mrs. Schott became a businesswoman by necessity when her husband, Charles, died in 1968, leaving her in charge of a business empire that included such divergent holdings as an auto agency, cement, truck and brick companies and real estate. She has since added holdings of her own.

It took her three and one-half years to convince General Motors to make her the first U.S. woman ever to be awarded a major metropolitan area G.M. dealership. Later, she became the first woman ever named to the board of trustees of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Schott is the only woman currently involved in primary ownership of a major league baseball team.

JOHN FLLEN Managing Executive

John Allen will serve as Managing Executive of the Cincinnati Reds through the 1998 season. He was named to his current position on August 9, 1996, after serving as the Reds' "Interim Managing Executive" since June 12, 1996, when Reds' President and CEO Marge Schott agreed to relinquish her day-to-day control of the team through the 1998 season. John originally joined the Reds in May of 1995 as Controller.

John has received widespread praise for his innovations in running the club. Baseball fans, baseball executives and the Greater Cincinnati community have responded warmly to his fan-friendly outreach, and to the renewed sense of fun, excitement and history at Cinergy Field. John was honored in 1996 and again in 1997 by Cincinnati Magazine in its annual "Best of Cincinnati" issue.

In January of 1997, John spearheaded an effort that gave fans in the Cincinnati community an opportunity to enjoy close interaction with the Reds' organization, as the first-ever "RedsFest" took place at the Cincinnati Convention Center. The event was repeated in 1998 and was again a success. More than 22,000 fans have enjoyed the event, which includes autograph and photograph opportunities with past and present Reds' players, question and answer panels, clinics, and the chance to view Reds' memorabilia.

Allen aspires to "put the focus back onto the playing field" rather than the Reds' front office, or on the business-oriented side of baseball. His agenda has included fan-friendly activities such as increased player contact for fans, decoration of the stadium, ticket and meal discounts, Stand By Your Red, and Run the Bases. Each of the past two seasons has included a "Celebration of Diversity" day to welcome and include fans of all backgrounds.

Under Allen's tutelage, special efforts have been made to respond to the fans and recognize Reds' history. Replicas of the retired jerseys of Fred Hutchinson and Johnny Bench went on display for the first time in a special ceremony on September 1, 1996. On January 19, 1998, the organization announced that Joe Morgan's #8, Frank Robinson's #20, and Ted Kluszewski's #18 will be retired during the 1998 season.

John began his professional baseball career in 1990 as an unpaid intern with the minor league Columbus Clippers, the triple-A affiliate of the New York Yankees. He was subsequently named the club's Director of Business Operations. While with the Clippers he performed a wide variety of duties in addition to business operations. These duties included such things as selling tickets, customer service, wrapping hot dogs, parking lot attendant, and passing out giveaway items. While in Columbus, Allen also earned a master's Degree in Sports Management at The Ohio State University.

John was born in Norton, KS, on December 26, 1948. He graduated from Norton Community High School where he was on the baseball, football, basketball and track teams. He served in Vietnam, where he was wounded in action and decorated for his efforts. Following active duty, he attended college on the G.I. Bill and earned his undergraduate degree at Kansas State University in 1974. John presently serves on the Finance

Advisory Board at Kansas State.

Prior to entering baseball, John worked with the accounting firm of Arthur Andersen in Kansas City, MO, and also with G.R.A., Inc. of Merriam, KS, where he was a partner and Senior Vice President.

Since being appointed Managing Executive he has been honored with the Certificate of Friendship from the Cincinnati Human Relations Commission, and the Community Service Award from the Talbert House. John serves on the Kid Glove Committee, the Millennium 2000 Celebration Commission, and the Good Scout Award Luncheon Committee. John was also personally honored on June 24, 1996 when Carlisle, OH celebrated "John Allen Day."

John and his wife, Anna, reside in Covington, KY. John has a son, Christopher, and a daughter, Sarah. John is a life member of the American Legion and Disabled American Veterans organizations.

In 1998, Jim Bowden enters his sixth season as the General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

Considered by many as one of the brightest and innovative young minds in the game of baseball today, Jim made baseball history on October 16, 1992 when, at the age of 31, he became the youngest ever GM.

He has helped guide the Reds to two National League

Central Division titles and, in 1995 at the age of 34, became the youngest GM in baseball history to guide his club into the League Championship Series. Since taking over as GM, Jim is 3rd in the NL among GM's in wins (381), ranking only behind Atlanta's John Schuerholz (459) and Los Angeles' Fred Claire (395).

Jim has faced many challenges in his career, and the 1998 season may be his biggest challenge to date.

Due to the club's financial situation, Jim has had to change his operating procedure from that of a large-market salary club to a small-market club. Although faced with lowering the club's player payroll in 1998, Jim has successfully turned the corner for the organization in getting "younger and cheaper." In 1997, Jim was able to pull off two block-buster deals which added great young talent to the organization. On July 15, he acquired OF's Chris Stynes (age 24) and Jon Nunnally (age 25) from the Kansas City Royals. Following the trade, the two players combined to hit .333 with 19 doubles, 19 homers, 63 RBI and 18 stolen bases in 114 games.

On July 31, he acquired RHP Danny Graves (age 24), RHP Jim Crowell (age 23), RHP Scott Winchester (age 24), and INF Damian Jackson (age 24) from the Indians. Jim also acquired OF Melvin Nieves and OF Dmitri Young in offseason deals.

Known for his aggressive nature when seeking talent, Jim has a tremendous track record when taking chances. In each of the last two seasons the Reds have produced the NL saves leader and Rolaids Relief Man points winner- Jeff Brantley in 1996 and Jeff Shaw in 1997. In both instances, the players were signed without having any prior closing experience.

In 1994, Jim took a chance and signed OF Ron Gant, after the slugger had been released by the Atlanta Braves when he broke his leg in an off-season motorcycle accident. Gant went on to hit .276 with 29 homers and 88 RBI in 1995, while earning NL comeback-player-of-the-year honors. Jim also acquired LHP Pete Schourek as a waiver claim that season. Schourek would go on to finish second (behind Atlanta's Greg Maddux) in the 1995 NL Cy Young Award voting. Jim turned the trick again in 1996, after coaxing OF Eric Davis out of retirement. Davis also earned NL comeback-player-of-the-year honors after hitting .287 with 26 homers and 83 RBI.

One of the very best in the game at adding quality veteran performers at the right time, Jim has always produced when the club has needed it the most. In the heat of the pennant race in 1995, Jim made two blockbuster deals within two days, which brought to the Reds some much-needed starting pitching.

David Wells was acquired from the Tigers, and pitchers Dave Burba and Mark Portugal from the Giants. The threesome combined to win 18 games, as the Reds pulled away from the Houston Astros

Jim is also committed to further developing the organization's role in scouting, player development and international scouting. This past off-season, the club signed 10 minor league players representing five different countries (Japan, Venezuela, Dominican Republic, Australia and Mexico).

Jim began his career in in 1984 with the Pirates, and spent 1985-88 as the club's Assistant Director of Player Development and Scouting. In 1989, he moved to the Yankees as Assistant to the Senior Vice President -

Baseball Operations. In 1990 he joined the Reds as Administrative Assistant for both scouting and player development. In August of 1991 he was promoted to Director of Player Development. After being named GM in 1992, he also assumed the duties of President and CEO of the Reds during Mrs. Schott's absence from the club.

A Weston, MA and Boothbay Harbor, ME native, Jim was born May 18, 1961. He's a 1979 graduate of Weston (MA) H.S. and earned his Bachelor's degree in Business Administration and Communication in 1983 from Rollins College (FL). Jim and his wife, Amy, reside in Anderson Township, and have three sons: J.B., Tyler and Chad. They also have two dogs: a golden retriever named Brianna

Faith and a labrador retriever named Prime Time.

Baseball Operations

DARRELL (DOC) RODGERS, Assistant General Manager, returned to the Reds in January, 1997, after spending the 1996 season with the Detroit Tigers as their Director of Baseball Administration. Doc was the Reds' assistant for baseball operations for three seasons beginning in 1993. He spent the 1991-92 season as pitching coach for the Reds' Appalachian League rookie club in Princeton, WV before joining the front office in '93. Doc spent six seasons as a pitcher in pro baseball from 1985-1990, including three seasons in the Reds' system (1988-90). He assists Reds' General Manager Jim Bowden in all aspects of major league operations, including the day to day operation of the major league club, player trades, free agent acquisitions, and contract negotiations. Doc also works closely with the Director of Scouting and Player Development. Doc is a 1985 graduate from Oklahoma University, with a B.A. degree in journalism, and received his Master's Degree in sports management from O.U. in May of 1994. He and his wife, Dorothy, reside in Cincinnati.

GENE BENNETT, Special Assistant to the General Manager, was promoted to his present position in October, 1992. He works with Jim Bowden on special assignments at the major and minor league levels, and also assists in trades, player evaluations and major league advance scouting. Gene has been with the Reds for 46 years. After signing with the Reds as a player in 1952, he began scouting in 1958 and was promoted to scouting supervisor in 1975. He signed a number of big league players, including 1995 NL MVP Barry Larkin, 1988 NL Rookie of the Year Chris Sabo, and former Reds' stars Paul O'Neill, Jeff Russell, Charlie Liebrandt, and many others. Gene received the TOPPS Scout of the Month award 12 times, and in 1988 received the TOPPS All-Star Scout award. In 1993, he was elected to the Ohio High School Athletics Association Sports Hall of Fame, and in 1996, was elected to the Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame sponsored by the Middle Atlantic Major League Baseball Scouts Association. Gene and his wife, Loretta, have a son (David), a daughter (Cathy), and four grandchildren: Caitlin and Tyler Bennett, and Kristie and Erik Jennings.

SHELDON (CHIEF) BENDER, Senior Advisor / Major Leagues and Player Development, is in his 57th year in professional baseball and 32nd with the Reds. In December of 1996, Chief was honored by the National Association when he was named "King of Baseball" for his longtime service and dedication to the game. Chief headed the Reds' minor league operations for most of the period from 1967 to 1989, first as Director of Player Development, then as Vice President/Player Personnel beginning in 1978. Bender was named

Special Player Consultant in January, 1990, before being named to his current position in October, 1992. He played and managed in the minor leagues for 12 seasons and was in the St. Louis Cardinals' organization from 1948-66 prior to joining the Reds. Chief and his wife Dorothea have a son, Jim, and two grandchildren, Eric and Martha.

AL GOLDIS, Senior Director/Scouting and Player Development, was named to his current position on October 18, 1996, after spending the past two seasons as Special Assistant to the General Manager for the Cubs. Al, 53, will oversee both scouting and player development - a role similar to what he's held with the Chicago Cubs, Milwaukee Brewers, and Chicago White Sox over the last 10 years. During his tenure with those clubs, he was directly responsible for drafting and signing such players as Frank Thomas, Jack McDowell, Dante Bichette, Robin Ventura, Devon White, and Alex Fernandez. Al began his pro playing career in 1963, after signing with the Reds. He would spend four years in the club's minor league system. Following his playing career, Al scouted for Baltimore, and California, before being named Director of Scouting and Player Development for the White Sox in 1986. Al and his wife, Linda, have four children: Joshua (25), Eric (23), Randi (25), and Allison (24).

MUZZY JACKSON, Director of Player Development, is in his first season with the organization and in his ninth season in professional baseball. He was hired on December 23, 1997 after 5 seasons with the Kansas City Royals, first as assistant director of minor league operations (1993-95) and then as assistant director of scouting and player development (1995-97). Muzzy, 30, was selected by the Chicago White Sox in the 1990 free-agent draft, was signed by Rod Fridley and Danny Monzon, and played one season professionally as an infielder for Sarasota in the Gulf Coast League. He graduated from Colquitt High School (Moultrie, GA) and earned a bachelor's degree in industrial administration from Mercer University (Macon, GA) in addition to a master's degree in sport management from East Stroudsburg University (East Stroudsburg PA), where in 1991 and 1992 he was a computer laboratory graduate assistant. In the fall of '92 he worked for the administration and finance group at the National Collegiate Athletic Association. His given name is Muzzy Omar Jackson.

DE JON WATSON, Director of Scouting, is in his first season with the organization and in his 14th season in professional baseball. He was hired on December 23, 1997 after 7 seasons with the Florida Marlins, where he had been an assistant to baseball operations since 1994. De Jon, 32, joined the Marlins in 1991 as a scout responsible for the inner city from Los Angeles to Long Beach. In 1992 he was promoted to central area supervisor and covered Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kansas and Missouri until his promotion to assistant to baseball operations 2 years later. The Los Angeles native was selected by Kansas City in the third round of the January 1985 free-agent draft, was signed by Gary Johnson and Willie Moore, and played five seasons as a first baseman in the Royals organization. In 1988 he led Baseball City in walks with 63 in 99 games. De Jon graduated in 1983 from Santa Monica (CA) High School and earned an associate's degree in business from West Los Angeles Community College (Culver City, CA) in addition to a bachelor's degree in business and management from the University of Redlands (San Bernardino, CA).

LARRY BARTON JR., Director/Baseball Operations, was named to his current position on November 1, 1993. Larry enters his 32nd year in pro ball, and 29th with the Reds. He has worked as an area scout, national cross checker, and also managed the Billings club in 1984. Larry has been responsible for signing a number of big league players, including Eric Davis, Mike LaCoss, Paul Moskau, Frank Pastore, Joe Price and Kurt Stillwell. He resides in Fontana, California. His son, Jeff, is a cross-checker in the Reds' scouting department. His father, Larry Sr., also scouted for the Reds following a successful minor league playing career.

JOHNNY BENCH, Special Consultant to the General Manager, was named to his position on March 7, 1997. Bench is a roving instructor for the Reds' Class A, AA and AAA clubs but also works with the Major League catchers, acts a consultant to general manager Jim Bowden and manager Jack McKeon, assists in post-season planning and evaluates Reds players, staff and potential free agents. Since his retirement from baseball following the 1983 season, Bench has been part of Bob Hope Christmas Shows overseas, sung with the Cincinnati Pops, written books and hosted a wide range of television programs, including his Emmy-winning instructional show "The Baseball Bunch". He was a member of the CBS Radio baseball broadcasting team through 1993 and co-hosted a daily in-season radio show focusing on baseball. Bench was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989 and as a 10-time Gold Glove Award winner has been recognized as the greatest catcher ever to play the game. He hit .267 with 389 HR and 1376 RBI during his 17-year career and led the Big Red Machine of the 1970's to six Western Division titles, four National League pernants and World Series championships in 1975 and '76.

BOB BOONE, Senior Advisor/Player Personnel, was named to his position on November 6, 1997. Boone, who previously served in Cincinnati as bench coach in 1994, is involved in instruction at the major and minor league levels, assisting in organizational policies and in training minor league managers and coaches. He also will evaluate and consult on trades, player moves and the June free-agent draft. Boone compiled a 181-206 record as manager of the Kansas City Royals (1995-97). He also managed Class AAA Tacoma in the Pacific Coast League from 1992-93 and went 125-161. Boone played 19 seasons with the Phillies, Angels and Royals and established Major League records for games caught in a career (2,225), since broken by Carlton Fisk, and most seasons catching at least 100 games (15). He won seven Gold Gloves, and appeared in four All-Star Games, six LCS and the 1980 World Series. Boone is the second generation of Major League Baseball's first three-generational family. His father, Ray, was an All-Star infielder during his 13-year big league career. Sons Bret and Aaron currently are on the Reds' 40-man roster, and son Matthew was a third-round pick of the Tigers in the June 1997 free-agent draft.

Trainers Association and is a member of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS), the Greater Cincinnati Athletic Trainers Association, and the Ohio Athletic Trainers Association. Greg, and wife Debbie, have three children: Ethan, Tyler and Hanna. They reside in Anderson.

MARK MANN, A.T.C. - Assistant Trainer

Mark Mann, who re-joined the Reds on January 1, 1995, was a 29th round selection by the Reds in the 1990 June free agent draft. Due to a shoulder injury that ended his playing career, Mark began his undergraduate studies at Northern Kentucky University in the field of athletic training. Mark first joined the Reds' training staff in 1992 in the farm system. Following two seasons at Billings, he spent one season (1994) in the Pirates' organization at Class A Welland, Ontario. Mark resides in Cincinnati.

LANCE SEWELL - Conditioning Coordinator

Lance Sewell enters his second season as conditioning coordinator for the Reds. His responsibilities include maintaining the individual strength programs of each player, and the overall day-to-day conditioning of the club. Lance earned a B.S. degree in Health and Fitness at the Baylor University, and his Master's in Sports Administration at the University of Tennessee. Lance also worked as assistant minor league conditioning coach for the Chicago

White Sox. He is a current member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association and is CSCS certified. Lance and his wife, Lydia Ann, reside in Knoxville, TN with their dog, Spencer.

Dr. JAMES ANDREWS - Sr. Consultant/Orthopaedics

Dr. Andrews is one of the founding members of the Alabama Sports Medicine and Orthopaedic Center (ASMOC) and the American Sports Medicine Institute (ASMI) in Birmingham, AL, located at HEALTHSOUTH Medical Center. He serves as Chariman and Medical Director of ASMI. He is also Medical Director of Greater Atlanta Sports Medicine in Atlanta, GA.

Dr. Andrews is internationally known and recognized throughout the world for his scientific and clinic research contributions in knee, shoulder, and elbow injuries, and his skill as an othopaedic surgeon. Dr. Andrews graduated from LSU in 1963, where he was the SEC's indoor and outdoor pole vault champ. He completed medical school at LSU in 1967, and completed his orthopaedic residency at Tulane Medical School in 1972. He had surgical fellowships in sports medicine at the University of Virginia School of Medicine in 1972, and at the University of Lyon in Lyon, France in 1973.

A member of the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery and the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons, Dr. Andrews currently serves as Co-Medical Director of Intercollegiate Sports at Auburn University, and the orthopaedic consultant for University of Kentucky football. He's also the Medical Director for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, and orthopaedic consultant for the Toronto Blue Jays.

Dr. Andrews and his wife, Jenelle, have six children: Andy (28), Amy (26), Archie (24), Ashley (12), Amber (9), and Abby (8).

SUSAN PAQUETTE - Medical Liaison

Sue Paquette is currently the Program Manager of the SportsCare Program at TriHealth. She serves as the Medical Liaison for the Reds, and works closely with the Reds' medical staff to coordinate the care for the major and minor league players. Sue has also worked closely with the Reds' stadium operations department to implement the new game-day medical care system for fans attending Cinergy Field.

Sue received her B.S. in Nursing from Ohio State University in 1984. Following graduation, she gained extensive experience in emergency and intensive care nursing, and was a member of an aeromedical helicopter flight crew. From 1990-1994 she was the Trauma Coordinator at the Ohio State University Medical Center, and from 1994-97 at Good Samaritan Hospital in Cincinnati.

As Program Manager of SportsCare at TriHealth, Sue is also involved with the medical care of the Cincinnati Cyclones and Silverbacks. She also coordinates the medical care for many regional sporting events, including the Crown and the ATP tournament. ²⁰

1997 CINCINNATI REDS: Named Cincinnati's interim manager July 25, 1997, becoming the 45th skipper of the Reds in this century. On September 19, his contract to manage the club was extended through the 1998 season. Replaced Ray Knight when the club was 43-56, in 4th place, 9.5 games behind Houston. With McKeon on the bench, the Reds went 33-30 the rest of the way, the best record in the NL Central division during that span. McKeon held the title of Reds Senior Advisor/Player Personnel, working with General Manager Jim Bowden on trades, player evaluations, and special assignments at both the major and minor league levels. 1998 marks Jack's 48th year in baseball and his sixth with the Cincinnati Reds (joined the organization January 6, 1993).

PREVIOUS MANAGERIAL CAREER: McKeon had managed in the major leagues for seven years (career record: 479-474, .503) and in the minor leagues for 17 years (1146-1123, .505) prior to the 1997 season. With the San Diego Padres from 1988-90, McKeon compiled the best career winning percentage of any skipper in that team's history (.541). Although he had not managed for nine years when he was summoned to the dugout, Jack immediately helped engineer a dramatic turnaround in the Padres' fortunes. ballclub went 67-48 and rose from last place to 3rd place after he became manager. McKeon also managed the Oakland Athletics in 1977 & 1978, going 71-105 in parts of two seasons. Jack began the 1977 as manager, but was replaced by Bobby Winkles on June 10, and although he began the next year as a coach, again took the reins as manager, this time on May 23, 1978. Under team owner Charles O. Finley, McKeon also served as Oakland's Assistant General Manager, Scouting Director and coach when he was not managing. Jack's first major-league managerial job came with the Kansas City Royals (1973-75). Although they were still a new franchise, only in their 5th year of existence, McKeon's Royals rolled to 2nd place during his initial year, going 88-74. Overall, he went 215-205 in two-and-a-half seasons in K.C.

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGER: McKeon crafted a 1146-1123 record (.505) over 17 seasons. He was honored with four Manager of the Year awards: 1958 at Missoula of the Pioneer League, 1961 for Wilson of the Carolina League, and back-to-back awards in the American Association, winning with Omaha in both 1969 and '70.

NON-MANAGERIAL BASEBALL CAREER: McKeon served as General

McKeon, Continued

Manager of the San Diego Padres from 1980-1990. He earned the nickname "Trader Jack" due to his penchant for turning multi-player deals. He was at the controls when the Padres earned their only trip to the World Series in history; McKeon's 1984 club won the NL West then took the pennant with a dramatic, come-from-behind victory in the NLCS over the Chicago Cubs. Before coming to the Padres, McKeon was Assistant GM, Scouting Director, manager, scout and coach for the Oakland Athletics during the late 1970's, and he also spent three seasons as a scout for the Minnesota Twins in the mid-1960's.

PLAYING CAREER: Jack signed his first pro contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates organization in 1949. A catcher, he led the league defensively for Burlington in 1951, when he caught a remarkable 139 of his team's 140 games. His best offensive year came in 1958, when he batted .263 for Missoula of the Pioneer League. McKeon showed a sign of things to come in 1951 when, as a 21-year-old player/manager, he led his Sampson (NY) Air Force Base team to the Air Force championship.

PERSONAL: John Aloysius McKeon ...Married Carol Isley October 29, 1954 ...Has four children, daughters Kristi (7/27/60) and Kori (7/21/64), and sons Kelly (8/31/61) and Kasey (7/7/67) ...Son-in-law Greg Booker pitched nine seasons in the major leagues and is now a San Diego Padres coach ...Jack attended The College of the Holy Cross and Seton Hall University before graduating from Elon College in North Carolina (B.S. degree, Physical Education) ...Was a starter on the New Jersey state champion H.S. basketball squad at St. Mary's in South Amboy.

National League's Top Second Basemen - 1994-1997

Reds' 2B Bret Boone led National League second basemen in fielding for the third straight season in 1997 (.9967051, 136G, 2E, 607TC), and also established Major League single season records for both fielding percentage by a second baseman playing at least 100 games (.9967), and most games by a second baseman with two (2) or fewer errors (136). Both records were set by California's Bobby Grich, who in 1985 posted a pct. of .9966996 in 116 games (606TC, 2E). Beginning September 10, 1996, Boone has committed just two errors in 154 games and 704 chances (.997), including errorless streaks of 48, 66 and 38 games to end the 1997 season.

Barry Larkin In The Community

In 1991, Barry Larkin started his own charitable organization, named "The Caring Team of Athletes." The organization is devoted exclusively to helping children's charities. The Caring Team has since grown into a national organization, staffed by pro athletes in many major league cities, and backed by corporate sponsors. Barry's dream of raising both awareness and money to help children has become a thriving reality.

Millions of dollars have been raised each year, most through in-game batting promotions, e.g., sponsors contributing set amounts of money for each hit recorded by a "Caring Team Athlete." The Caring Team's impact is felt right now, in the form of health care and other much-needed services, by thousands of children and families across the country.

Following the March, 1997 flood, Barry's Caring Team made a $25,000 contribution to schools in Pendleton County, KY, one of the areas hardest hits by the flood.

Barry has received the prestigious Roberto Clemente Award (1993) for positively representing baseball.

In 1998, Barry was honored as the first-ever winner of the Eisenreich Award, which honors a major league athlete for his work with children. Barry shared the honor with Joe Garagiola Sr.

Opening Day Age: 31

Born: 7/7/66 at Washington CH, OH Resides: Washington Court House, OH Acquired: Signed by the Reds as a free agent on January 2, 1996.

Major League Service Time: 6.020

1997 SEASON: Signed through 1998...in the best season of his professional career went 4-2, 2.38 in 78 games with a career-high 42 saves, the second-highest total in club history, in 49 opportunities (.857 save %, T1st in NL)...did not become the club's closer until Jeff Brantley went on the disabled list on 5/20 but still led the National League in saves and Rolaids Relief Man

Award points standings, becoming the second consecutive Reds pitcher to win both of those titles ... Brantley in 1996 shared the NL lead with a teamrecord 44 saves while winning the NL Rolaids Relief Man Award...since the save became an official statistic in 1969, only one other time have 2 different pitchers from the same team led either league in saves in consecutive seasons: White Sox reliever Terry Forster led the American League with 24 saves in 1974, while Goose Gossage posted a league-high 26 saves for ChiSox in '75...Shaw and Brantley also are the first pitchers from the same team to win consecutive Rolaids Relief Man Awards...behind Shaw, the Reds won their second consecutive Rolaids Relief Man Award team title...allowed just a 1.21 ERA in 26 games vs. NL Central foes...on 9/15 at Cubs, finished the 4-1 victory and took over the league lead in saves with his 38th and also took over the lead in the NL Rolaids Relief Man Award standings...would not relinquish either of those leads the rest of the season...ranked among NL relievers with 94.2 IP (4th) and ERA (4th)...capped off his brilliant season by winning the NL's Pitcher of the Month Award for September (0-0, 1.20, 14sv, 15g), his first monthly award...his 14 saves tied the Major League record for saves in September (Chi's Randy Myers in 1993) and fell 1 shy of the Major League record for saves during any month (15sv by NYY's John Wetteland in June 1996 & StL's Lee Smith in June 1993)...from 8/25-9/19 converted saves in each of 15 consecutive apps, a club record and the 3rd-longest such streak in NL history (Chi's Randy Myers, 16 straight in 1993; StL's Lee Smith, 17, 1993)....during that 15-appearance save streak posted a 1.15 ERA...that streak ended on 9/22 vs Hou, when Bob Abreu's eighth-inning line drive off Shaw's left kneecap scored the tying run in the Astros' 6-3 win...suffered only a bone bruise and came back to save Reds victories the next 2 days in his last apps of the season...from 8/25-9/24 earned saves in 17 consecutive Reds wins...saved 42 of the club's 76 victories overall (55%) and saved 17 of the club's last 20 wins...in his last 24 games of the season went 1-1 with 21 saves... converted 10 consecutive save opps from 5/16-6/20 and 8 consecutive save opps from 6/25-7/22...from 7/26-8/24 suffered 3 blown saves in 7 chances before beginning his run of 15 saves in 15 apps on 8/25 at Col, when he saved both ends of that day/night DH...had a career-high 74 strikeouts and tied Tom Hume for the club record in games finished (62, 1980)...walked 2 of his first 6 batters of the season and just 10 (3 IBB) of his last 361 batters...from 4/19-5/16 faced 131 batters (27g, 34.1ip) without issuing an unintentional walk and from 4/19-7/17 issued just 1 unintentional walk in 182 batters (39g, 48.1ip)...from 5/14-7/17 issued 1 walk in 131 batters, his best stretches of the season, including an 81-batter stretch from 5/14-6/16 and a 50-batter stretch from 6/16-7/17...participated in 6 of the club's 8 combined shutouts...during 3 months posted ERAs below 1.25 (April 1.23, May 0.43, September 1.20)...posted a 1.90 ERA at home...RH batters hit .212...in 4 games on the 5/2-5/11 West Coast road trip did not allow a hit or a run in 7 IP (1ibb, 8k)... from 5/1-5/14 retired 16 straight batters...struck out the side on 5/14 vs SF (9th) and 5/16 vs LA (8th)...in the 11-inning, 4-3 loss on 5/11 at SD, suffered a blown save despite pitching his most impressive outing of the season...in that game threw 4.0 perfect innings with a career-high 7 strikeouts, the most by a Reds reliever all season, but lost the save opportunity when his first batter, Chris Gomez, grounded into a sixth-inning double play that scored a run to tie the game at 4-4...had his most frustrating outing on 8/3 vs SF, when he allowed 4 hits and 5 ER in 0.1 IP (2bb, 1ibb), raising his ERA to 2.39 from 1.74...prior to that game had allowed just 13 ER all season in 52 apps and 67.1 IP...after that 8/3 outing allowed just 7 ER in 27 IP over 25 apps the rest of the year (2.33era)...beginning 8/29 posted a 1.13 ERA (16ip, 2er) in his last 16 apps of the season...retired the first batter 53-78 times (68%) and stranded 16-23 inherited runners (70%)..in his last 94 ML apps, beginning 8/30/96, has posted a 2.09 ERA (116.1ip, 27er).

PRO CAREER: 1996: Was one of the N.L.'s premier set-up men in 1996 ...His 22 "holds" led the NL .. Established then new career highs in wins (8), saves (4), appearances (78, T3rd in the league), innings pitched (104.2), and strikeouts (69) ...Was especially tough during the second half, posting a 1.96 ERA after the All-Star break, a 1.75 ERA for August, and an 0.87 ERA for September ...Held lefty batters to a team-low .191 average ...Made Reds' debut April 3 vs. Expos, after making the squad as a non-roster invitee to spring camp ...Earned first win as a Red April 5 vs. Phillies (2.1 IP, 1 H, 1 ER) ...Allowed just one earned run in seven-game span April 8-21 (8.1 IP, 1.08 ERA) ...Allowed just two earned runs the entire month of May, while spinning a 1.80 ERA in 10.0 innings of work ...Earned first save May 8 in a combined shutout with Pete Schourek vs. LA ...Went on a streak of 12.2 scoreless innings pitched May 19-June 15 (10 appearances) ...In his appearance on June 20 at New York, recorded save #2, while throwing just 15 pitches - all strikes ...Was 2-3 with a 3.08 ERA (17 ER, 49.2 IP) at the All-Star break ...Enjoyed a stellar month of August, going 2-1 with a 1.75 ERA in 25.2 innings of work ...Appeared in 16 games ...Was the hero August 5 at San Fran, pitching out of two bases-loaded jams to preserve a one-run victory ...Earned 5th win, and also tied career high for appearances in a season (55), August 17 vs. Colorado (W. 1.0 IP, 2 H, 1 ER) ... Tossed a season-high 4.0 innings August 18 vs. Colorado ... Was virtually untouchable in the month of September, surrendering just two earned runs in 20.2 innings of work - good for an 0.87 ERA in 15 outlings ... Earned his major league career high sixth win September 2 vs. the Braves (1.0 IP, 1 H), then established another career high by earning save #4 the very next night vs. Atlanta in a combined 1-hit shutout with Dave Burba(3.0 IP, 0 H) ... Allowed just two earned runs in final 16 appearances (21.2 IP, 0.83 ERA), and five earned runs in his final 29 outings (43.1 IP, 1.04 ERA).

1995; Split the season between Montreal and Chicago White Sox ...Pitched mostly with the Expos, appearing in 50 games out of the bullpen ... Was 1-6 with a 4,62 ERA (32 ER, 62.1 IP) ... Collected a then career-high three saves ... Acquired by the White Sox on August 28, Shaw pitched in only nine games. surrendering seven earned runs in 9.2 innings (6.52 ERA) ... On the season, reached then career highs in games (59) and strikeouts (51).

1994: Posted first winning record in first full major league season ... Went 5-2 with a 3.88 ERA (29 ER, 67.1 IP) in 46 outings out of the bullpen ... Worked 3.0-plus innings of shutout ball on back-to-back days, April 11 (3.1 vs. Cin.) and April 12 (3.0 vs. Cin.) ... Earned first win of the season in relief after tossing 3.2 innings April 22 at Los Angeles ... Added another 3.0 scoreless outing May 9 vs. Mets ... Earned first and only save August 6 vs. Philadelphia ... Was only the second save of his career ... Won his last three decisions of the season.

1993: Despite going 5-0 with an 0.77 ERA in spring training for the Expos, opened the season at AAA Ottawa, where he spent the first 11 days of the season ... Was recalled April 16, and finished out the season for Montreal establishing then career highs in games (55), starts (8), and innings pitched (95.2) ... Ranked 4th among all Expo hurlers in appearances.

1992: Spent most of the season at AAA Colorado Springs (10-5, 4.76, 24 starts), other than a brief two-game stint with Cleveland (0-1, 8.22, 7.2 IP) April 24 - May 6 ... Was recalled by the Indians on April 24, and made two relief appearances before being sent back down to the Sky Sox ...Led Colorado Springs in innings (155.0), T1st in starts (24), and ranked 2nd in wins (10).

1991: At AAA Colorado Springs, posting a 6-3 record with a 4.64 ERA in 12 starts ... Was promoted to Cleveland in mid season, appearing in 29 games (1 start) ... Made his only start June 14 and suffered the loss vs. Minnesota ... Was moved to the bullpen following his start ... Earned his first pro save in a 10-4 win over Baltimore on June 26, tossing 3.0 shutout innings. 1990: Went 10-3 with a 4.29 ERA in 17 games (16 starts) for AAA Colorado Springs, before earning first trip to majors April 30 ... Tossed 5.1 innings of relief vs. Blue Jays in ML debut ... Made first ML start May 6, and recorded first win by tossing 6.2 innings vs. the Rangers ... Went 3-4 with a 6.66 ERA in 12 games (9 starts) overall for the Indians ... Was returned to the Sky Sox on May ...Combined for 13 wins on the season - a single-season career high.

Reds in the Standings

The Reds spent the following days alone or tied at each position in the National League's Central Division in 1997: FIRST - 4; SECOND - 6; THIRD - 20; FOURTH - 124; FIFTH - 23. On Tuesday, September 23, the Reds overtook the St. Louis Cardinals for third place in the division. Up to that point, the Reds had not been in third place since April 18. The club's 17-11 record in September ranked as the NL Central's best mark, and National League's second best.

1997 Month-by-Month Recap

APRIL: 7-18 (.243 AVG, 6.36 ERA)

The Reds lost 18 games in April for the first time in franchise history, and their .280 winning percentage was the lowest for the season's first month since 1955 (4-12, .250)...finished 1 loss behind the Cubs, who began the season 0-14 and established the National League record for losses in April with 19...Reds would begin the season 16-31, their slowest 47-game start since the 1950 club went 15-32 on its way to a 66-87 record...won 3 of their first 4 games, then suffered a heart-breaking 11-inning, 4-3 loss at Fla on 4/5 that began a stretch in which the Reds would lose 18 of their next 22 games to fall 7.5 games out of first place...in that loss to the Marlins, Edgar Renteria tied the game in the bottom of the ninth inning with an inside-the-park HR off RHP Jeff Shaw, aided by a collision between CF Deion Sanders and RF Reggie Sanders, and then he won it with an RBI-single in the 11th off RHP Kevin Jarvis...that loss snapped the Reds' 83game winning streak when leading after 8 innings, dating back to September 1995, their longest such streak since they won 104 in a row in 1923-24...played the Braves and Marlins 11 times in their first 26 games, went 0-5 vs Atl and 3-3 vs Fla in that span...the Braves and Marlins would finish the season with the top 2 records in the National League...began the season with an 11-4 victory over the Rockies, aided by 15 hits, 6 extra-base hits and 5 stolen bases...the 11 runs tied the club's Opening Day record...in the 9-7 victory at Fla on 4/4, RF Reggie Sanders tied his career high with 6 RBI, which would be the club's best output all season, and 1B Hal Morris went 0-for-4 with a walk to snap his 32-game hitting streak dating back to 1996...allowed 13 runs and 19 hits in consecutive games at Col, a 13-2 loss on 4/7 and a 13-4 loss on 4/9...manager Ray Knight suffered a concussion in a skiing accident on 4/8 at Col and missed the 13-4 loss the next day...from 4/14-4/23 went 1-8 on a road trip to Atl (0-3), Pit (1-3) and NY (0-2) during which the starting infield of 1B Hal Morris (6-30), 2B Bret Boone (3-23), SS Barry Larkin (7-34) and 3B Willie Greene (3-27) collectively went 19-for-114 (.167)...Reds' 6-1 victory at Pit on 4/18 snapped their 8-game road losing streak. their longest road losing streak since a 9-game skid from 8/31-9/24, 1993...on 4/ 28-29 suffered a 2-game home sweep by the Mets for the first time since May 1969...Reds' 15-2 loss to NY on 4/28 was their most lopsided loss since a 13-0 defeat vs SF on 9/17/93...were led in April by DSanders (.383, 19sb), IF Willie Greene (3hr, 11rbi), RHP Dave Burba (3w) and RHP Jeff Shaw (0-0, 1.23, 3sv. 13g)...DSanders' league-leading 19 stolen bases were the most in the Major Leagues in the month of April since Rickey Henderson stole 20 bases in April 1988...Reds finished the month in 4th place in the NL Central Division, 7.5 games behind the first-place Astros.

MAY: 13-16 (.257 AVG, 3.22 ERA)

In an effort to spark the club, manager Ray Knight moved into the third-base coaching box on 5/16 and led the Reds to an 8-6 record until he returned to the bench on 6/2...was an eventful month for Knight, who also was suspended for 3 games from 5/20-5/23 for inappropriate behavior following his 5/17 ejection by third base umpire Jerry Layne...the Reds began the month with a 4-5 road trip at SF (2-1), LA (1-2) and SD (1-2), including a pair of extra-inning losses and two 2run losses...on that road trip went 12-for-74 (.162) with RISP, including 9-for-64 (.141) in the last 8 games...1B Eduardo Perez hit his third career pinch-hit HR on 5/6 at LA, a solo shot off Mark Guthrie in the top of the 11th inning that snapped a 2-2 tie and gave Cin a 3-2 victory...on 5/9 at SD, SS Barry Larkin singled in the seventh inning off Joey Long for his 1,500th career hit...Jeff Kent's fourth career grand slam (off Burba) gave the Giants a 4-1 victory on 5/13 vs. SF...on 5/13-5/14 suffered a 2-game home sweep by the Giants for the first time since May 1966...on 5/15, the Reds retired the uniform number of Brooklyn Dodgers infielder Jackie Robinson...a six-foot baseball bearing Robinson's number 42 was placed permanently on the wall behind the left-center field fence...on 5/16, the Reds finished a home series on a Friday for the first time since a 2-game set vs Atl ended on 7/11/ 80...the 4-2 victory vs LA on 5/16 snapped their 7-game losing streak at Cinergy Field, their longest home losing streak since they dropped their first 7 home games following the 1991 All-Star break...in the 13-6 loss vs SD on 5/19, Padres tied a club record with 5 HR, Steve Finley became the first SD player with 3 HR in a game since Nate Colbert on 8/1/72, and C Eddie Taubensee lined into a 1-6-3 triple play (Ashby-Gomez-Clanfrocco), the first by a Reds batter since Chris Sabo's GITP ended a 4-2 loss to Mtl on 9/8/91...OF Curtis Goodwin's 1-out, 3-run HR off

Turk Wendell in the bottom of the 12th inning gave the Reds a 4-1 victory vs the Cubs and snapped a streak in which the Reds had gone 0-25 in games trailing after the seventh and eighth innings...in the 5/26 DH vs Phi, SS Barry Larkin reached base safely in all 7 plate apps (5h, 2bb) as part of a streak in which he reached base safely in 13 consecutive plate apps, a club record and 1 shy of the National League record held by Pedro Guerrero (7/23-7/26, 1985)...that week Larkin was named NL Player of the Week after hitting .583 with 4 doubles, 1 triple, 3 HR, 6 RBI, 9 runs scored and a 1.208 slugging percentage...Reds were led in May by Larkin (.381, 2hr, 13rbi), RF Reggie Sanders (3hr), IF Willie Greene (14rbi), LHP John Smiley (4-1, 2.83) and RHP Jeff Shaw (1-0, 0,43, 4sv, 13g)...finished May in 5th place, 6.5 games behind the first-place Pirates.

HE INJURIES: The Reds for most of the season played without veterans SS Barry Larkin, RF Reggie Sanders, 1B Hal Morris, RHP Jeff Brantley and LHP Pete Schourek...Larkin missed 63 games and 71 starts because of a combination of inflammation in the bursa and achilles tendon of his left heel, a strained left calf and neck spasms...on 9/3 he had season-ending surgery to remove the bursa sac from his left heel, a cyst from the achilles tendon and a bone spur from his left big toe...Sanders missed 66 games during 2 stints on the DL with a bulging disc and then with a severe medial sprain of his right ankle and a severe bruise on the tibia below his right knee...Morris was bothered most of the season by a right shoulder injury suffered on 5/11 and on 8/4 had season-ending arthroscopic surgery to clean the frayed labrum in that shoulder...he did not play after 7/30...Brantley did not pitch after 5/19 and on 6/11 had season-ending surgery to repair the labrum and a quarter-size hole in the posterior capsule of his right shoulder and to clean up frayed portions of his right rotator cuff...Schourek made just 17 starts because of tenditis in his left triceps muscle and inflammation in his left elbow...on 10/7 he had arthroscopic surgery to clean up bone spurs in his left elbow.

COMEBACK WINS: The Reds came from behind to win 31 games and won 11 games in their last at-bat...in an 8-5 victory vs Pit on 6/10 the Reds overcame a 5-0 deficit, their biggest comeback of the season...overcame 4-run deficits 3 times, the last in a 5-4 victory at StL on 9/24 in which they trailed 4-0, and 3 times overcame 3-run deficits to win...went 2-76 when trailing after 8 innings, including a 4-1 victory on 5/24 vs Cubs in which Eddie Taubensee's solo HR in the ninth tied the score at 1-1 and Curtis Goodwin hit a 3-run HR in the bottom of the 12th inning and a 10-inning, 7-6 victory on 6/24 at Mtl in which Goodwin's 2-run single in the ninth gave Cin a 6-5 lead and Lenny Harris' RBI-single in the 10th won it.

MENKE AS MANAGER: Reds bench coach Denis Menke went 1-3 as interim manager...he substituted for Ray Knight after Knight's concussion on 4/8 and during Knight's 3-game suspension from 5/20-5/23.

DEFENSIVE RARITY: The Reds' defense did not record an assist in the 5-3 loss at Col on 8/20...was just the fifth "assist-free" game in Major League history...had happened only one other time in the National League, when the Mets did not record an assist vs the Phillies on 6/25/89.

EJECTIONS: Ray Knight (5/1 vs Atl by HP umpire Wally Bell, 5/17 vs SD by 3B umpire Jerry Layne), Ron Oester (7/1 vs Mil by 1B umpire Larry Vanover, 8/1 vs SF by 2B umpire Brian Gorman), Aaron Boone (6/20 at StL by HP umpire Gary Darling), Lenny Harris (8/8 vs LA by HP umpire Mike Winters), Deion Sanders (8/8 vs LA by 1B umpire Joe West)...Chi's Jim Riggleman (5/24 by HP umpire Greg Bonin), NY's Bernard Gilkey (6/7 by HP umpire Mark Hirschbeck). Cle's Mike Hargrove (6/16 by 3B umpire Ed Hickox), Mtl's Felipe Alou (7/11 by HP umpire Ed Rapuano), Atl's Bobby Cox (7/26 by 1B Charlie Reliford).

AWARD WINNERS: LHP Kent Mercker was NL Pitcher of the Month for June (4-0, 1.96, 6gs), RHP Jeff Shaw was NL Pitcher of the Month for September (0-0, 1.20, 14sv, 15g), and SS Barry Larkin was NL Player of the Week for the week of 5/26-6/1...were the first monthly awards for Mercker and Shaw... Larkin twice previously was named player of the week (4/16-4/22, 1990; 6/24-6/3, 1991).

THE WRITER: Beat reporter Hal McCoy was honored prior to the 9/19 game for his 25 years of service to the Reds and Dayton Daily News...he has the longest tenure of any beat writer in baseball.

DOUBLE DIPS: The Reds went 2-0-1 in doubleheaders, including a sweep vs the Phillies on 5/26 at Cinergy Field and a day/night sweep vs the Rockies on 8/25 at Coors Field...split the DH at Phi on 9/12...Reds have not been swept in a DH since the Mets did it on 9/27/95 at Shea Stadium...since then are 7-0-3 in doubleheaders, including the day/night DH at Col, winning 17-20 games.

1-HIT WONDER: The Reds were 1-hit twice, a 2-0 loss to Mtl's Pedro Martinez on 7/13 and a 5-0 loss to Chi's Kevin Tapani on 9/16...2B Bret Boone had the Reds' only hit in each of those games.

DEJA VU: RHP Dave Burba for the second straight season overcame a slow start with a strong finish...began the '97 season 4-8, 5.84 In his first 17 apps through 6/26...beginning 7/1 went 7-2, 3.31 in his last 13 apps and beginning 9/2 went 5-0, 2.67 in his last 5 starts...his strong finish mirrored 1996, when he began 0-8, 4.58 in his first 14 apps but went 11-5, 3.35 in his last 20 apps and 4-0, 2.93 in his last 6 starts...since joining the Reds, he is 22-8, 3.27 (233.2ip, 85er) in 38 apps during July, August and September.

COMPLETE GAMES: The Reds pitching staff entered the last weekend of the season with 3 complete games, which would have tied the 1991 Yankees' Major League record for fewest CG in a season and would have broken the National League record of 4 CG held by the 1993 Marlins and 1993 Giants...but RHP Mike Morgan threw a 3-hitter in a 7-1 win on 9/26 at Mtl and LHP Mike Remlinger threw a 4-hitter in an 11-3 win at Mtl 2 days later on the last day of the season...Reds finished the season with 5 CG, tying the Padres, Giants and Cardinals for fewest in the league...Cin was the only Major League team without a complete game until RHP Dave Burba threw a 3-hitter in a 9-1 victory vs Mil on 7/1...the Athletics established a new Major League record with just 2 CG this season.

HAL'S STREAK: 1B Hal Morris on 4/4 at Fla went 0-4 with a walk, snapping his career-high 32-game hitting streak that began 8/27/96...the streak included the first 3 games of 1997 and 29 in a row ending the '96 campaign...was the Major Leagues' longest hitting streak since 1987 (Santiago, 34 G) and the club's second-longest hitting streak this century behind Pete Rose's 44-game streak in 1978...Morris is one of only 15 players with 30-game hitting streaks since Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak in 1941...Cle's Sandy Alomar and Bos' Nomar Garciaparra each had 30-game hitting streaks in '97.

ON THE LEFT COAST: For the first time in franchise history, the Reds made only 2 trips to play at SF, LA and SD...went 8-8 on the West Coast this season and all-time are 610-610 at 3Com Park, Dodger Stadium and Qualcomm Stadium...in previous seasons, made at least 3 trips to visit those 3 teams.

THE SLEEVES: On 4/10, the club announced it would shorten the sleeves of its road uniforms as a special tribute to Jackie Robinson...the jerseys were altered to resemble the one Robinson wore in the photo depicted on the cover of a Wheaties box...the Reds wore the altered road jerseys the rest of the season.

PITCHERS AS HITTERS: LHP Kent Mercker pinch hit twice...on 4/25 at Phi, Mercker hit for Hector Carrasco and walked, becoming the first Reds pitcher to PH since Mark Portugal on 7/6/96 at Chi (sac bunt) and the first Reds pitcher to PH and reach base since Paul Moskau singled vs Atl on 10/1/78...he pinch hit for Jeff Shaw on 5/24 vs Cubs and successfully executed a sacrifice bunt...LHP Pete Schourek had the only home run and the only stolen base recorded by Reds pitchers all season...on 4/26 vs Phi, Schourek hit his second career HR (off Curt Schilling) and his first since 6/13/94 at LA off Ramon Martinez...was the first HR by a Reds pitcher since RHP Dave Burba hit one on 7/19/96 at Pit off Chris Peters...in his next start, on 5/2 at SF, recorded the first stolen base of his career and the first SB by a Reds pitcher since Johnny Ruffin did it on 6/1/94 vs Mtl.

GRAND 9LAMS: The Reds hit 3 grand slams (Willie Greene's third career on 6/ 27 vs Stl off AlBenes, Terry Pendleton's fifth career on 7/1 vs Mil off Florie, Jon Nunnally's first career on 9/26 at Mtl off Mike Johnson)...Reds pitchers allowed 3 grand slams (Atl's Javier Lopez on 4/14 off Belinda, SF's Jeff Kent on 5/13 off Burba, Atl's Jeff Blauser on 7/25 off Schourek).

PINCH-HIT BOMBS. The Reds hit 2 pinch-hit home runs (Eduardo Perez' third career on 5/6 at LA off Mark Guthrie in the top of the 11th inning that snapped a 2-2 tie and gave Cin a 3-2 victory, Mike Kelly's first career on 7/22 vs Fla off Felix Heredia)...Reds pitchers allowed 4 pinch-hit HR (SD's Carlos Hernandez on 5/19 off Belinda, Phi's Kevin Jordan on 5/26/g1 off Smiley, WSox' Harold Baines on 6/15 off Burba, Col's Todd Helton on 8/25/g2 off Shaw).

QUERIES ABOUT SERIES: The Reds went 19-24-13 in series play...swept 4 series (2g vs Pit, 6/10-6/11; 3g vs Mil, 6/30-7/2; 2g, 7/16-7/17 at Pit; 3g at StL, 9/23-9/25)...were swept 7 times (last on 7/18-7/21 at NY)...Mets' 2-game sweep on 4/28-4/29 was their first 2-game sweep at Cinergy Field since May 1969...Reds at 0-6 were winless at Shea Stadium for the first time ever during a full season (0-3, 1994)...on 5/13-5/14 the Reds suffered a 2-game home sweep by the Giants for the first time since May 1966...had 3 walkoff wins (last on 7/26 vs Atl, 7-6 win, 11 innings) and 7 walkoff losses (last on 8/14 at SD, 5-4 loss, 10 innings).

RETURN OF THE KING: After Elvis joined Reds announcers Marty Brennaman and Joe Nuxhall in the WLW Radio both on 5/24, the Reds went 62-55, the best record in the NL Central Division during that span, 2 victories and 1.0

game better than the Astros (60-55).

THE BROTHERS BOONE: When Aaron Boone was promoted on 6/20, he took the roster spot of Bret Boone in a Major League transaction believed to be the lirst involving brothers...when Bret returned to the Reds on 6/22, the Boones became the fifth set of brothers to play for the Reds and the third set to play for the Reds during the same season.

IN THE STANDINGS: From 4/19-9/14 spent 147 days in fourth or fifth place and from 6/7-9/14 spent 97 consecutive days in fourth...5 times were a season-high 17 games below .500 (14-31, 46-63, 47-64, 48-65, 59-76)...prior to this season, last were 17 games below .500 on 10/2/93 (72-89) and last were 18 games under .500 at the end of the 1984 campaign (70-92)...on 8/3-8/4 were a season-high 13.5 games out of first place, their largest deficit since they finished the 1993 season 31.0 games behind Atl...on 7/4 were 38-46 and for the first time since 4/18 had closed to within 3.0 games of first place, snapping streak of 76 days in which they were more lhan 3.0 games out of first...from 7/5-8/4 went 8-17 and lost 10.5 games in the standings...twice were a season-high 2 games over .500 (2-0, 3-1)...spent 5 days above, 1 day at and the last 172 days below .500.

Greene Makes His Home Run Mark in 1997

In 1997, Willie Greene set new personal career highs for home runs (26) and RBI (91), as he led the Reds in both categories.

He became the first 3rd baseman since 1971 and just the third 3rd baseman in Reds history to amass 25 homers and 90 RBI in a season.

He was also the only NL player under the age of 25 to produce 25 homers and 90-plus RBI in 1997, and just one of four players to accomplish the feat in all of Major League Baseball . (Tony Clark, Det., 32/117; Carlos Delgado, Tor., 30/91; Nomar Garciaparra, Bos., 30/98).

Cardinals' Ray Lankford Makes Red Seat History

On July 15, 1997, St. Louis Cardinals' outfielder Ray Lankford made history at Cinergy Field in Cincinnati. With two outs and one runner on in the bottom of the 1st inning, Lankford connected on a Brett Tomko 1-0 offering and sent the pitch into the right field Red Seats (448 feet) to become the first Cardinal ever to reach the upper deck at Riverfront/Cinergy Field. But Lankford was not done. With the count 2-1 in his second plate appearance in the 3rd inning, he touched Tomko again for a right field Red Seater (439 feet) to become the first player ever to reach the upper deck twice in the same game. Lankford's home runs that night traveled a total of 887 feet. George Foster was the only other player to hit two Red Seat homers in the same season (August 3 and September 7, 1977).

Bret Boone Enters Major League Record Books

Reds 2B Bret Boone led National League second basemen in fielding for the third straight season in 1997 (.9967051, 136g, 2e, 607tc), and also established Major League single-season records for both fielding percentage by a second baseman playing at least 100 games (.9967) and most games by a second baseman with 2 or fewer errors (136)...both records were set by Cal's Bobby Grich, who in 1985 posted a fielding percentage of .9966996 in 116 games (606tc, 2e)...since 9/9/96, Boone has committed just 2 errors (5/13/97 vs SF, 8/12/97 at SF) in 154 games and 704 chances (.997), including errorless streaks of 48, 66 and 38 games to end the 1997 season...despite his league-leading statistics, Boone has never won a Rawlings Gold Glove Award.

Reds Longest Errorless Streaks for 1997

(by position)

Position	Player	Streak
1st Base	Eduardo Perez	32 games (4/5-8/9)
2nd Base	Bret Boone	66 games (5/14-8/11)
Shortstop	Pokey Reese	44 games (4/16-7/15)
3rd Base	Jeff Branson	17 games (4/2-6/20)
Outfield	Curtis Goodwin	71 games (4/26-8/6)
Catcher	Joe Oliver	55 games (5/15-7/26)

Reds Historical Review

The history of professional baseball begins in Cincinnati. Cincinnati is the home of the very first professional baseball team, and a charter member of the National League. During the 1970s, Cincinnati was home to the famed "Big Red Machine," one of the most dominant teams in the history of sports.

The first professional team of all time was the 1869 Cincinnati Red Stockings. No other club had ever composed its entire roster of paid ballplayers before (i.e., no amateurs at all), and they were sensationally successful. Led by George & Harry Wright, the Red Stockings played their first practice game April 17, 1869 (a 24-15 win), their first official game June 1, 1869 (a 48-14 rout over the Mansfield Independents). and eventually reeled off 130 consecutive games without a loss before fallto the Brooklyn ing Atlantics in June of 1870.

the Red Stockings were charter members. The Reds left the league from 1881-1889 (due largely to the fact that the league would not permit the sale of beer in the ballpark), but returned in 1890, and have been in the NL ever since.

The turn of the century saw one of the most colorful men ever associated with the Reds take control of the club. August "Garry" Herrmann was team president from 1902 until 1927, when he was forced to retire due to declining health. Herrmann was at the helm on April 11, 1912 when Redland Field (later known as Crosley Field) was officially dedicated. The beloved old ballpark would serve as the Reds' home until 1970, hosting a total of 4,543 games.

A host of famous players paraded through the Herrmann regime. Frank "Noodles" Hahn was a durable, standout pitcher, and OF Cy Seymour won the Reds' first batting championship when he hit .377 in 1905, a mark which still stands in the Cincinnati record book.

Later came Edd Roush, an all-time great center fielder, and Heinie Groh, the famous third baseman who used a bottle-shaped bat. They formed the nucleus of Cincinnati's first pennant winner in 1919, and went on to beat the Chicago White Sox in the World Series.

such as Eppa Rixey (who still holds the club record with 179 pitching victories) and Bubbles Hargrave (the first catcher ever to win a batting title) kept Cincinnati in the running. But after Garry Herrmann resigned control of the team in the late 1920s, the Depression crippled the team's owners and limited the Reds' success on the field as well,

Powel Crosley Jr., the famous radio tycoon, purchased the team in 1934. He did so mostly for civic purposes, as it was strongly rumored that the Cincinnati franchise might be moved, and Crosley felt that the city needed a major league baseball team.

One of the people who helped convince Crosley was Larry MacPhail, the Reds' colorful general manager. MacPhail, one of the early promoters in baseball, opened up a new era for the sport when the Reds became the first big-league team ever to play at night. Lights were installed at the newly-renamed Crosley Field, and on May 24, 1935, the Reds and Phillies squared off in the first night game. Even with a very limited number of evening games on the schedule, Cincinnati crowds soared from their previous levels.

Two years later, a new chapter opened in Cincinnati as Warren Giles was named General Manager. Although the Reds finished last in Giles' first season, the team began to move up in 1938 -- they jumped to fourth place, and pitcher Johnny Vander Meer fired no-hitters in consecutive starts. By 1939, the club had become the league's best, winning back-to-back pennants in 1939 and 1940. Cincinnati captured the World Series in 1940, taking an exciting, seven-game series from the Detroit Tigers (helped by a remarkable performance from their 40-year-old "coachturned-catcher," Jimmy Wilson).

Some of the greatest names in Reds' history were on those teams. Paul Derringer, Bucky Walters and Johnny Vander Meer were talented pitchers. 1B Frank McCormick, catcher Powel Crosley Jr. purchased the Reds in 1934, for the purpose of keeping the club in Cincinnati. It had been rumored that the Reds franchise might be moved if sold.

Ernie Lombardi and Walters all won Most Valuable Player awards. The manager of the squad was Hall of Famer Bill McKechnie.

World War II and age caught up with the Reds during the 1940s, and the club began rebuilding in the late '40s and early '50s. Ewell "The Whip" Blackwell became the first pitcher to pitch in six straight All-Star games, and muscular 1B Ted Kluszewski was signed off the Indiana University campus.

Johnny Vander Meer tossed back-to-back no-hitters in the summer of 1938. Warren Giles left the Reds in 1951 when he became president of the National League. His successor, Gabe Paul, assembled a powerful hitting club in the mid-'50s. Cincinnati nearly won the pennant in 1956, losing by just two games to Brooklyn, but the fans fell in love with this team. The Reds tied the NL record for most team home runs (221), and hit the million mark in attendance for the first time. Skipper Birdie Tebbetts was crowned Manager of the Year.

Manager Fred Hutchinson took command of the Reds in 1959, and in '61 they startled many "experts" by winning the NL pennant. OF Frank Robinson, who had been Rookie of the Year in 1956, was the league's Most Valuable Player, and OF Vada Pinson nearly won the batting title. Under the popular Hutchinson, who died of cancer in 1964, the Reds averaged over 90 wins per season from 1961-64.

Rumors again spread in 1966 that the Reds would leave Cincinnati. They were silenced though, when a group of businessmen, led by Francis L. Dale, purchased the Reds and pledged allegiance to the city with a 40-year lease, thus assuring construction of a new stadium. As the '70s opened, Bob Howsam was the General Manager, the brand new Riverfront Stadium was about to open, Sparky Anderson had just been named team's manager ...and the Reds were on the threshold of the greatest decade in their history.

From 1970, when the team won its first Western division title, through 1979. Cincinnati won more games and more titles than any other major league Leam. The Reds averaged 95 wins per year during this decade of dominance, and compiled a .593 winning percentage. It was a team of offensive power, defensive excellence, and remarkable overall team consistency.

Reds' fans saw a total of 12 championships in the '70s: six division crowns (1970-72-73-75-76-79); four National League pennants (1970-72-75-76); and back-to-back World Championships (1975 and '76). Assembled by Bob Howsam, the "Big Red Machine" built a national following, and attracted 21 million fans to their home games during the

(an outfielder who averaged 32 home runs and 107 RBI over a 7-year period).

The Reds so dominated the National League that their players won six MVP awards in an eight-year span. Bench won in 1970 and '72, when he led the NL in both homers and RBI; Rose in 1973, when he led the league in hitting for the third time; Morgan in both 1975 and '76 as the brightest star of the Reds' back-toback World Champion clubs: and Foster in 1977, when he set club records for both home runs (52) and RBI Tony Perez, while (149).never league MVP, earned an unmatched reputation for clutch hitting -- Bench and Perez ranked "onetwo" in the majors for RBI during the 1970s.

To borrow a phrase, the 1970s belonged to the Cincinnati Reds.

The '80s opened on an odd note, when the '81 Reds missed the playoffs despite having the best record in major league baseball. Due to an exceptional "split season" format that year, the Reds' close second-place finishes in both the first and second halves of the year meant that (despite an unsurpassed overall record) they didn't qualify for post-season play.

Late 1984 saw the return of hometown hero Pete Rose, this time helm, the Reds finished second in four consecutive seasons (1985-88).

The frustration of these four straight nearmisses was eased by two very special days in Reds' history. On September 11, 1985, Rose became baseball's all-time hit king, passing up the legendary Ty Cobb when he collected career hit #4,192 before a roaring Cincinnati crowd. And three years later, September 16, 1988, lefty Tom Browning threw the only perfect game in team history; 27 men up, 27 men down.

iseball's all-time hit king, after passing Ty Cobb ith career hit #4,192 vs. the San Diego Padres t Rivertront Stadium

The 1990 season was an event Cincinnati fans will long remember. Under manager Lou Piniella and the league's Executive of the Year Bob Quinn, the Reds became the first NL team ever to occupy first place from "wire to wire." After taking a hard-fought Championship Series from the Pirates, the pennantwinning Reds sturned the heavily favored Oakland A's (and in fact, stunned all of baseball) with a four-game World Series sweep. Led by Series MVP Jose Rijo, a record-setting hitting performance by OF Billy Hatcher, and a bullpen which simply overmatched their foes, the Reds were World Champions once again.

Baseball adopted a three-division format in 1994, and the Reds dominated the newly-created NL Central, winning the division in each of its first two years.

In 1995, shortstop Barry Larkin was named the National League MVP after batting .319 with 15 homers and 51 stolen bases. Barry became just the 9th Cincinnati Red ever (11th time) to receive the award, and the first since George Foster in 1977. Larkin would also earn his second-consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award, and be named to the Silver Slugger team for the 6th time.

Reds Historical Review, Continued

Barry would surpass his 1995 performance in 1996, as he became the first shortstop in Major League Baseball history to hit 30 or more homers and steal 30 or more bases. After having surpassed the 30 stolen base plateau, Barry made history on September 22 vs. St. Louis, when he blasted his 30th homer of the season in the 5th inning. Larkin finished the 1996 campaign with a .298 batting average, and reached new career highs in runs scored (117), homers (33), and RBI (89).

In closing, it must be noted that Reds' baseball has always been more than just wins and losses. After more than 125 thrilling years, it's clear that Reds' baseball is about people.

- It's the over 1,500 different players who have worn the Cincinnati uniform, 1,393 of them since 1900.

-- It's the fabulous fans, the over 92 million Reds' loyalists who have come to the park since attendance records were first kept in 1901.... The fans who signal the coming of spring each year with a big crowd on Opening Day in Cincinnati.

--It's the glorious days of the Big Red Machine and the back-to-back World Series Championships in 1975 and 1976.

--It's names like Gus Bell, Johnny Bench, Ewell Blackwell, Leo Cardenas, Paul Derringer, Noodles Hahn, Fred Hutchinson, Ted Kluszewski, Bill McKechnie, Sparky Anderson, Joe Morgan, Wally Post, Pete Rose, George Foster, Johnny Vander Meer, Bucky Walters, Dave Concepcion, Vada Pinson, Tom Seaver, Edd Roush, Frank Robinson, and all who have provided the Cincinnati community with one of sports' most famous traditions.

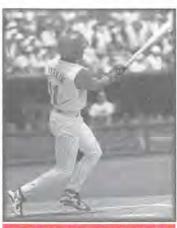

-- It's the voices of people like Waite Hoyt, Marty Brennaman, Red Barber, Gordy Coleman, Al Michaels and Joe Nuxhall, people who have brought the games to life over the airwaves.

-- It's the colorful characters who have steered the team, from Lee MacPhail to Marge Schott to Garry Herrmann.

A third century for the Cincinnati Reds now beckons both the team and its fans, and a new ballpark also awaits on the not-too-distant horizon. The current Reds' team, led, appropriately, by a homegrown hero in shortstop Barry Larkin, looks forward to a very exciting future.

In 1996, Barry Larkin became the first shortstop in Major League Baseball history to hit 30 or more homers and steal 30 or more bases in the same season.

Cincinnati Club Nicknames Over the Years

The Cincinnati franchise began play in 1869 as the Red Stockings due, not surprisingly, to the color of their game hosiery. The club has undergone a few name changes over the years, first shortening the name to Reds, then briefly during the 1950's, being known as the Redlegs.

Opinions vary as to exactly when "Red Stockings" became shortened to just "Reds," but team histories refer to the club as Reds when the National League was founded in 1876, and by 1882, the more formal Red Stockings name was no longer in favor. In fact, instead of "Red Stockings," fans of that era might have been more likely to refer to the Cincinnati team as the "Porkopolitans," a reference to the city's (and the club hierarchy's) interest in the meat-packing industry.

During the 1950's, the era of Joseph McCarthy and the Red scare, the term "Red" was seen in a very different light. Thus during the seasons of 1953-58, the Cincinnati ballclub was called the Redlegs, so as not to give any appearance of an affiliation with Communism.

The City of Cincinnati

The Ohio River Valley where Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky are situated, has long been known as a land of special promise. For centuries, various American Indian tribes revered the lush valley where several smaller rivers join the Ohio River to be sacred hunting grounds. Indians from throughout the

M i d w e s t would travel to what is now Cincinnati to hunt the huge herds of bison and other game that frequented the area.

Word soon spread about this "promised land" as European immigrants began to travel west during the last half of the 18th century. Part of the Northwest Territory ceded to the United States in 1783 by England, the area where Cincinnati now exists, was considered among the most fertile land on the continent.

As the only spot along the Ohio River where the steep hills did not come to the river's banks, the area that would become Cincinnati was the natural setting for a great city.

On December 28, 1788, a group of hearty pioneers beached their riverboats directly across the Ohio River from the mouth of Kentucky's Licking River, and Cincinnati was born.

After the Indian threat was ended through fierce fighting in the mid-1790's, Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky grew rapidly. Its dense forests and fertile river valley soil provided area settlers with ample natural resources. The superior river transportation network created by the convergence of the Ohio, Licking, and Great Miami rivers also allowed local surpluses to be shipped to New Orleans for nationwide distribution.

Cincinnati's agricultural riches quickly turned this booming and boisterous river town into the nation's top hog market, earning the city the nickname

"Porkopolis" by 1820. A wave of German immigrants also made Cincinnati equally famous for its tasty beer and German heritage, as it became the nation's top beer producing (and consuming) city.

During the riverboat heydays of the 19th century, Cincinnati was among the nation's largest and busiest inland water ports. A major stop for commercial and pleasure vessels traveling down the Ohio to the Mississippi River and New Orleans, Cincinnati's big-city sophistication rivaled that of almost any other city. Its sophistication and growth was so renown that shortly after the Civil War, the New York Times declared Cincinnati to possess the most metropolitan atmosphere of any city outside New York. So rapid was the growth of Cincinnati that by 1860, it was the 6th largest U.S. city and the unquestioned manufacturing capital of the nation. When New York Tribune Editor Horace Greeley wrote his famous lines in 1850, "Go West young man, and grow up with the country," he was talking about the Midwest and in particular Circulars in Corpolars (Corpolars Inc. Circulars Inc. Circu the greatest city on earth."

Such fame, fortune and location prompted many influential people to advocate relocating the U.S. capital to Cincinnati as early as 1830. The movement culminated in 1870 with an actual convention in Cincinnati on moving the nation's capital, where nothing was accomplished and the movement died.

When the riverboat era faded into the railroad age in the late 19th century, Cincinnati also relinquished its title as the center of westward migration and growth. Although it remained a prosperous city, gone forever was Cincinnati's dream of becoming the world's greatest metropolis as giants such as Chicago and St. Louis mushroomed on the western frontier.

As other cities were expanding in the pioneer spirit Cincinnati long discarded, the city matured. The "Queen City of the West" (a title made popular by poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow in 1854) embraced its dominant German culture by creating large annual cultural festivals and erecting nationally famous cultural institutions like Music Hall, Cincinnati Art Museum, and the Cincinnati Art Academy in the late 1800's.

Cincinnati had slipped from 6th to 9th place in population by 1900, but it remained one of the nation's most important cities. A world manufacturing leader in numerous industries such as printing materials, shoes, leather goods, machine tools, and soap, Greater Cincinnati's labor force paid one-sixth of the first national tax bill when Federal income tax began in 1916.

The city gained the world's spotlight once again in the early 1930's when

DID YOU KNOW: The first piece of airmail in the United States arrived at Cincinnati - a postal card addressed to Miss Grace A. Wendt from W.W. Dickson, Post Office Inspector in Charge in New York City, which read: "This is the first piece of mail ever dispatched by aeroplane in the United States. With best wishes for your welfare and prosperity, I am yours truly, W.W. Dickson".

Cincinnati had the distinction of opening the world's largest municipal airport (Lunken Airport) and train terminal (Union Terminal). With its manufacturing clout in place, Cincinnati played a key role in the World War II effort by producing fighter plane engines and other critical war materials.

Today, Greater Cincinnati finds itself a thriving, mid-sized city that continues to be a leader in many business and cultural affairs. Cincinnati is once again among the country's fastest growing cities, and it is attracting world attention with its rapidly expanding airport and unusually strong foreign export market.

Always a city with tremendous community pride, Cincinnati grandly observed its 200th birthday in 1988 with a year-long celebration that saw citizens volunteer more than 1 million hours and $69 million. As part of the celebration, an expansive city park was dedicated at the spot where the city founders landed.

In one of the most memorable World Series games ever, October 21, 1975 game six of the '75 Fall Classic goes to the Red Sox, after Boston's Bernie Carbo and Carlton Fisk connect for lateinning homers. The Reds bounce back and win the World Series the following day. October 21, 1976 Cincinnati's Big Red Machine wins its second straight World Championship. Under manager Sparky Anderson the Reds sweep both the Philadelphia Phillies (3 straight) and New York Yankees (4 straight) in post-season play. In a move which signals the beginning of the end for the Dec.16, 1976 "Big Red Machine" era, Tony Perez is dealt to the Montreal Expos (along with Will McEnaney) for pitchers Woodie Fryman and Dale Murray. Pete Rose extends his hitting streak to 44 consecutive July 31, 1978 games, a mark topped only by Joe DiMaggio's record of 56. Rose would be held hitless the following night in Atlanta, ending his NL-record string. October 4, 1981 The Reds finish with the best record in the major leagues, but don't make the playoffs. Due to an unusual "splitseason" format, the Reds do not quality for post-season play. Pete Rose breaks Ty Cobb's all-time career hits record by Sept. 11, 1985 ripping a single off the Padres' Eric Show at Riverfront Stadium for career hit number 4,192. The single came in the very first inning of the game. Lefty Tom Browning throws the only perfect game in Cincin-Sept. 16, 1988 nati Reds' history, stifling the L.A. Dodgers, 1-0. Cincinnati hero Pete Rose is given a lifetime ban from base-Aug. 24, 1989 ball for conduct related to gambling. Terms of his suspension permit Rose to apply for reinstatement after one year. Sept. 29, 1990 The Reds clinch the Western Division title, becoming the only NL team ever to occupy first place "wire to wire." October 20, 1990 Cincinnati sweeps the heavily favored Oakland A's, four games to none, to claim the World Series, April 1, 1996 Opening Day is postponed and a sellout crowd is stunned when, just seven pitches into the season, plate umpire John McSherry collapses and dies on the playing field. The Reds unveil displays saluting their first two retired uni-Sept. 1, 1996 form numbers: manager Fred Hutchinson (#1) and catcher Johnny Bench (#5). Sept. 9, 1996 Riverfront Stadium is officially renamed Cinergy Field. Reds' organization hosts first ever RedsFest at Cincinnati January 4, 1997 Convention Center. Approximately 12,000 fans were in attendance for the event, which featured past and present Reds players, coaches and managers signing autographs, posing for photos, and taking part in question and answer

For the first time in their 129-year history, the Reds play an American League opponent during the regular season. The Chicago White Sox spoil the first inter-league game,

Reds Make Trade History in 1997

On November 11, 1997, the Cincinnati Reds became the first Major League team to make Major League trades with both the expansion Arizona Diamondbacks and Tampa Bay Devil Rays. The Reds sent OF Mike Kelly to Tampa for a player to be named later (Dmitri Young), and RHP Felix Rodriguez to Arizona for a player to be named later (RHP Scott Winchester). Both Winchester and Young were selected in the MLB Expansion Draft, and returned to the Reds to complete the earlier trades.

^{*}Both Dmitri Young and Scott Winchester were selected in the 1997 MLB Expansion Draft, and returned to the Reds as players to be named later to complete earlier trades.

Ted Kluszewski

On January 19, 1998, the Cincinnati Reds announced that they will retire the uniform numbers of Joe Morgan, Frank Robinson, and Ted Kluszewski. Robinson's jersey #20, Morgan's #8, and Kluszewski's #18 will join Fred Hutchinson's #1, Johnny Bench's #5, and Jackie Robinson's #42 as the only retired uniform numbers in Cincinnati Reds history. The ceremony unveiling Robinson's #20 is scheduled for May 22, followed by ceremonies for Morgan on June 6, and Kluszewski on July 18. The retired jerseys of Bench and Hutchinson were unveiled on September 1, 1996.

Reds Retired Uniform Numbers

Johnny Bench #5

Born: December 7, 1947; Number Retired 8/11/84

Cincinnati's uniform #5 belongs to perhaps the greatest catcher to ever play in the major leagues. The standard by which all other catchers are measured, Johnny Bench ended his 17-year storied career in 1983, after earning two MVP Awards, 10 Gold Gloves, and 14 trips to the All-Star game. Bench was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989.

Bench began his career with a bang, earning Rookie-of-the-Year honors in 1968. Able to control a game on both sides of the plate, he ended his career with a .267 average, and 389 homers (327 as a catcher which stands as a record for NL catchers).

On the Reds' all-time batting list, Bench ranks first in homers and RBI (1,376), second in runs (1,091), extra-base hits (794), and total bases (3,644), third in hits (2,048) and doubles (381).

Johnny appeared in 22 National League Championship Series games, and 23 World Series games. Bench earned World Series MVP honors in 1976 when the Reds swept the NY Yankees, four games to none. He twice led the league in home runs (1970 with 45, and 1972 with 40), and three times in RBI (1970 with 148, 1972 with 125, and 1974 with 129).

Fred Hutchinson #1

Born: August 12, 1919 - Died: November 12, 1964 Number retired in 1965

Fred Hutchinson was a popular and successful manager of the Cincinnati Reds. Hutch's 466 managerial victories and .543 winning percentage rank him among the best managers ever to wear a Cincinnati uniform. The Reds exceeded the 90-win mark in three of his six seasons at the helm, and in 1961 they took the National League pennant.

But the joy of a first-place finish was matched only three years later by the sadness of Hutch's illness and early death. The courage, class and determination that Fred exemplified all his life were all the more evident during his battle with cancer.

Hutch stepped down as Reds' manager in 1964, and died that November.

The following year, Hutch's uniform (#1) became the first one in Cincinnati Reds history to be retired.

Today, Fred Hutchinson's legacy lives on in the world-renowned Cancer Research Center that bears his name, and in The Hutch Award. It is given annually to a major league ballplayer who "best exemplifies the character and fighting spirit of the late Fred Hutchinson ...who overcomes any form of adversity." Past winners include Ray Knight, Ron Oester, Eric Davis, Bobby Tolan, and Johnny Bench.

Riverfront Stadium / Cinergy Field Highlights

Riverfront Stadium opens on June 30, 1970, as 51,050 fans attend to see the Reds host the Atlanta Braves. Atlanta wins, 8-2, as Hank Aaron hits the stadium's first home run.

The Reds post their first win in Riverfront Stadium's second game (July 1, 1970), downing the Atlanta Braves, 9-2. Tommy Helms becomes the first Red to homer at the new park.

Just two weeks after the stadium opened, Riverfront is the site for baseball's All-Star game (July 14, 1970). The National League scores a dramatic 5-4 victory in 12 innings, as Pete Rose crashes into American League catcher Ray Fosse to score the winning run on Jim Hickman's RBI single. Rose was joined in the mid-summer classic by teammates Johnny Bench, Jim Merritt, Tony Perez, and Wayne Simpson.

Tony Perez becomes the first player to homer into the upper level Red Seats at Riverfront with a blast into left field off the Mets' Jim McAndrew on August 11, 1970.

"The Reds edge Pittsburgh, 3-2 on October 5, 1970 to complete a three-game sweep of the Pirates in the National League Championship Series and win

On October 11, 1972, the Reds' George Foster scored the winning run of a 4-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates to win the National League pennant. Foster scored from third on a wild pitch by Bob Moose.

their first league pennant since 1961.

Chicago's Ken Holtzman pitches the first no-hitter at Riverfront on June 3, 1971, winning 1-0 over the Reds.

Philadelphia's Rick Wise no-hits the Reds for a 4-0 win on June 23, 1971.

Wise also hits two homers in the game,

The Reds score two runs in the bottom of the 9th inning to beat the Pirates, 4-3 in the 5th and deciding game of the NLCS on October 11, 1972. Johnny Bench ties the game with a homer off Dave Giusti. George Foster scores the winning run on Bob Moose's wild pitch.

Hammerin' Hank Aaron ties Babe Ruth's all-time home run record with a 1st inning, three-run homer off Jack Billingham on Opening Day, 1974

(April 4) for career home run #714.

Pete Rose singles off Montreal's Steve Rogers for career hit #3,000 on May 5, 1978.
 Tom Seaver becomes the first Reds' pitcher to throw a no-hitter at Riverfront, beating the Cardinals, 4-0 on June 16, 1978.

Tom Seaver records career strikeout #3,000, fanning Keith Hernandez of the St. Louis Cardinals on April 18, 1981.

Johnny Bench homers off Houston's Mike Madden on "Johnny Bench Night" at Riverfront Stadium September 17, 1983. It was the 389th and final homer of his career.

Pete Rose debuts as Reds' player/manager on August 17, 1984. Rose leads the Reds to a 6-4 win over the Cubs, going 2-4 with two RBI, including an RBI single in his first at-bat.

Pete Rose becomes baseball's all-time hits leader on September 11, 1985, with a single to left-center field off San Diego's Eric Show for career hit #4,192.

The All-Star game returns to Riverfront Stadium on July 12, 1988. The American League edges the National League, 2-1. Danny Jackson, Barry Larkin, and Chris Sabo represent the Reds.

Tom Browning becomes the first pitcher in Reds' history to throw a perfect game, when he retires all 27 Dodgers he faces for a 1-0 victory on September 16, 1988.

Eric Davis becomes the first Red since Frank Robinson in 1959 to hit for the cycle as he singles, doubles, triples and homers on June 2, 1989 vs.

Tom Browning tossed the first perfect game in Reds history on September 16, 1988 in a 1-0 victory over the Dodgers, the Padres.

*The Reds score 14 runs on 16 hits in the bottom of the 1st inning in their 18-2 win over Houston on August 3, 1989.

*The Reds edge the Pirates, 2-1, in the 6th and final game of the 1990 NL Championship Series on October 12, for their first NL pennant since 1976.

Billy Hatcher sets a World Series record with seven consecutive hits, going 3x3 in game one (October 16, 1990) and 4x4 in game two (October 17) vs. Oakland.

The Reds defeat the Los Angeles Dodgers and phenom pitcher Hideo Nomo, 10-1 in game three of the Division Series October 6, 1995. The victory sends the Reds to the National League Championship Series vs. the Braves.

Opening Day 1996 turns tragic, as long-time National League umpire John McSherry collapses behind home plate just seven pitches into the game. McSherry is rushed to University Hospital, where he passed away due to a massive heart attack.

"The Reds make it official on Sunday, September 1, 1996, when the club, in a pre-game ceremony, unveiles the retired uniform numbers of former catcher Johnny Bench and manager Fred Hutchinson on the left field wall of Riverfront Stadium. It markes the first time in the stadium's history that retired uniform numbers are displayed.

Riverfront Stadium is renamed Cinergy Field on September 9, 1996.

St. Louis Cardinals' shortstop Ozzie Smith makes his final visit to Cincinnati, and was honored in a pre-game ceremony Friday, September 20, 1996.

The Reds' Barry Larkin becomes the first shortstop in major league history to join the prestigious 30-30 club (30 homers and 30 stolen bases in the same season) when he beltes his 30th homer of the season on September 22, 1996 in game one of a doubleheader vs. the St. Louis Cardinals,  Cinergy Field takes on a "field-lift," as new artificial surface is put in place in early March of 1997. It marks the first time the artificial turf has been replaced since prior to the start of the 1988 season.

The Reds unveil the retired uniform numbers of Johnny Bench (No. 5) and Fred Hutchinson (No. 1) on Sunday, September 1, 1996.

Riverfront Stadium/Cinergy Field Washouts

Since Riverfront Stadium opened on June 30, 1970, 33 games and 32 playing dates have been postponed because of bad weather. The 1996 season saw five games postponed due to rain - the most rainouts ever in one season at Riverfront Stadium/Cinergy Field.

One Perfect Night

On September 16, 1988, LHP Tom Browning tossed the only perfect game in Cincinnati Reds history, when he retired all 27 batters faced in a 1-0 Reds' victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

It was only the 14th perfect game (9.0 innings or more) in major league

It was only the 14th perfect game (9.0 innings or more) in major league history, just the 3rd in modern National League history, and the first nohitter by a Red since since Tom Seaver blanked the Cardinals on June 16, 1978 (4-0).

Browning's perfect game capped off an incredible season in which he posted an 18-5 record, including a 16-2 mark after June 6.

The Golden Gun

*Major League Record

Johnny Bench was the Reds' regular catcher from 1968 through 1980. While it is difficult to find throwing stats on individual catchers, the Reds' team performance during that time speaks volumes. Cincinnati catchers nailed 35% of would-be base thieves during Bench's 13-year catching career (551 caught stealing, 1024 stolen bases). The most successful season saw 58% of opposing baserunners shot down (35 caught, 25 steals in 1972). Respect for Reds' catchers was so strong that, for seven straight seasons (1969-1975), the opposition made fewer than 100 attempts to steal against Cincinnati. The Reds successfully nailed 43% of the runners during that time (225 caught, 300 stolen bases). And Johnny Bench averaged 136 games as a catcher during those seasons. In post-season play, Bench threw out 11 of 13 runners trying to steal in World Series games. During his first five National League Championship Series, Bench caught every inning of every game, and allowed no stolen bases at all; opponents tried only three times.

Cincinnati vs. Los Angeles October 3-6 (Cin 3 - LA 0)

GAME 1 @LA: Reds 7 - Dodgers 2

Reds starter Pete Schourek was outstanding, limiting LA to just five hits in 7.0 innings ...Reds jumped out to an early 4-0 lead in the 1st on a Hal Morris two-run double, and two-run homer by Benito Santiago, in his first post season at-bat ...Reds added three more runs in the 5th on a Santiago sac fly, and Jeff Branson's two-run double to take game one.

GAME 2 @LA: Reds 5 - Dodgers 4

Despite being out-hit 14-6, the Reds were able to pull out a close one in game two ... After allowing the Dodgers an early 1-0 lead, the Reds took the lead in the 4th inning, as Ron Gant reached on error, then scored on a Reggie Sanders two-run homer ... With the game tied 2-2 in the 8th, the Reds got an RBI single from Barry Larkin to take a 3-2 lead, then held on in a wild 9th inning to take game two, 5-4.

GAME 3 @CIN.: Reds 10 - Dodgers 1

The Reds exploded for 10 runs in game three, as they battered Dodger starting pitcher Hideo Nomo for five runs on seven hits in the first five innings ... The Reds iced the game in the 6th, when pinch-hitter Mark Lewis connected off Mark Guthrie for a grand slam, giving the Reds a 7-1 lead ... It was the first pinch-hit grand slam in National League playoff history ... Ron Gant and Bret Boone also homered, as the Reds pounded out 11 hits off six Dodger pitchers ... Starter David Wells earned the victory, after allowing just one unearned run on six hits in 6.1 innings.

1998 Minor League Managers, Coaches and Instructors

Dave Miley - Manager - AAA Indianapolis

The reigning American Association Manger of the Year, Dave Miley has spent his entire 18-year pro baseball career in a Reds' uniform. After seven seasons as a minor league catcher, he has spent the last 10 as a coach, instructor and manager, including a stint on the Reds' ML coaching staff in 1993. The 1998 season will be his 3rd at AAA Indianapolis. Dave's clubs have finished first (1st or 2nd-half) during six of his first eight seasons as a manager, and made the playoffs every year. He led the 1997 Indy club to an 85-59 mark, and earned his 2nd Manager of the Year crown (in 1995 at Chattanooga, he was named double-A Manager of the Year by Baseball America.) Miley, 36, boasts a lifetime managerial record of 668-460 (.592).

Mark Berry - Manager - AA Chattanooga

Mark Berry, 35, has reached post-season play in four of his six years as a manager. In 1996, he was named Manager of the Year in the Southern League in his first season as a skipper at the AA level. In 1997, Mark was honored as the Southern League's best managerial prospect by Baseball America. His lifetime managerial record is 441-390 (.531). Prior to managing, Mark played seven seasons in the Reds' organization as a catcher & third baseman, and also served as a coach for two years (1990-91).

Phillip Wellman - Manager - A Burlington

Phillip Wellman enters his 7th season as a minor league manager, and his 3rd in the Cincinnati Reds' system. The 36-year-old Wellman took the helm at Class A Burlington last season, and led the Bees to a 1st place finish in the season's second half. Before coming to the Reds' organization, Wellman managed elsewhere in the minors for four years, spent four years as a hitting instructor in the Braves' chain, and also spent four minor league seasons as a player.

Barry Lyons - Manager - A Charleston (WV)

The Reds and their Charleston (WV) affiliate welcome former bigleague catcher Barry Lyons back in 1998 for his 2nd season. His first year saw the club finish on top in both halves of the South Allantic League season, going 76-62. Lyons, 37, recently finished his playing career, and made a successful managerial debut in 1996. He was named Manager of the Year in the independent Big South League after leading the Columbia (TN) Mules to a 40-31 (.563) mark. Lyons' playing career included seven ML seasons (.239 lifetime average, primarily with Mets) and a successful 1994 season with the Reds' Indianapolis club.

Russ Nixon - Manager - Rookie Billings

Russ Nixon returns to the Reds' organization in 1998 to manage the Billings Mustangs. Prior to the Mustangs' season opener in June, Russ will serve as a coach for Dave Miley at AAA Indy. A Cincinnati native and former Reds big league manager, Nixon has spent the past 45 years in professional baseball, including the last five seasons in the San Diego Padres organization as manager of their Class AAA affiliate in Las Vegas, then as director of minor league instruction, and in 1996 he was both director of minor league instruction and director of player development. Nixon last served the Padres as a special assignment scout. Nixon, 62, previously joined the Reds coaching staff in 1976 and served as manager from July 21, 1982 through the end of the 1983 season, compiling a 101-131 record. He also served as manager of the Atlanta Braves from 1988-1990.

Grant Jackson - Coach - AAA Indianapolis

Grant Jackson, 55, oversaw one of the best pitching staffs in 1997, as his Indians' hurlers ranked 2nd in the league in ERA. In 1996, Indy boasted the lowest team ERA in the league. It will be the 6th year as a Reds' coach for Grant, two of which (1994-5) were spent on Cincinnati's ML staff. He also coached for eight seasons with other organizations. During his 18 years as a major league relief pitcher, Jackson had an 86-75 record, and was also a perfect 3-0 in 13 post-season games (7 LCS, 6 World Series).

Mack Jenkins - Coach - AA Chattanooga

Mack Jenkins enters his 3rd season as pitching coach with AA Chattanooga, 9th overall in the organization as a pitching coach. Mack, 33, pitched professionally for Sarasota in 1986, Billings in 1987, and Greensboro and Cedar Rapids in 1988. Following his playing career, Mack served as a pitching coach at Billings in 1990-91, Cedar Rapids in 1992, and Charleston (WV) from 1993-95. Mack, and his wife Delight, live in Chattanooga. They have two children: Corinne and Payton.

Mark Wagner - Coach - AA Chattanooga

Mark Wagner will re-join Mark Berry and the AA Chattanooga Lookouts for the 1998 season, his second year with the club. Before joining Chattanooga, Mark spent 1996 managing the Reds' rookie-league club at Princeton (WV). Mark spent nine seasons in the major leagues, primarily with Detroit and Texas, while compiling a .243 lifetime average. Wagner, 44, spent four seasons (1991-94) managing and coaching in the Tigers' minor league system, before joining the Reds in 1996. He has two children: Mark and Megan.

Derek Botelho - Coach - A Burlington

Derek Botelho enters his 8th season as a pitching coach in the Reds' organization, and his 2nd at Burlington of the Midwest League. Botelho, 41, has coached 1991-92 at Charleston and 1993-96 at Winston-Salem. He pitched professionally from 1976-89, including major league stints with Kansas City (1982, 8 G) and the Chicago Cubs (1985, 11 G). Derek combined on a shutout for K.C. in his major league debut.

Andre Rabouin - Coach - A Charleston (WV)

Andre Rabouin enters his 3rd season as pitching coach for the Reds' single-A affiliate at Charleston (WV), and his 12th season overall as a minor league coach. Prior to joining the Reds, Andre spent four seasons coaching the Toronto Blue Jays Gulf Coast League club (1992-95), following five years working in the Kansas City Royals' minor league system. The bilingual Rabouin, 48, (fluent in Spanish) was signed by the Reds in 1972 as a free agent, but spent most of his professional career pitching in Mexico.

Terry Abbott - Coach - Rookie Billings

Terry Abbott, 43, enters his 10th season as a minor league pitching coach, and 9th in the Reds system. He has coached at every minor league level except AAA. In 1998, he returns to Billings where he celebrated Pioneer League titles in 1992, 1993 and in 1997. Prior to coaching, Abbott had a two-year pitching career (Braves' system), earned a Masters degree in physical education from Jacksonville (AL) State U., and served as a high school coach for 9 years. He and his wife Anita have one son: Chris.

Donnie Scott - Minor League Field Coordinator

A vital cog in Reds player development, Donnie Scott is entering his 3rd season as minor league field coordinator. He oversees all minor league operations during spring training, and during the regular season works very closely with managers, coaches and instructors. Scott, 36, won four Pioneer League championships (1992-94, and 1997) in five seasons at Billings, and was named the 1993 P.L. Manager of the Year. A former catcher, Scott spent parts of six seasons in the majors with Texas, Seattle and Cincinnati. Donnie and his wife, Debbie, have two children (David and Dana).

Bill Doran - Infield/Baserunning Instructor

Cincinnati native Bill Doran enters his 4th season in the Reds' farm system as infield/baserunning coach, after rejoining the club in 1995. Bill, 39, hit .266 during his 12-year ML career, which included stops in Houston (1982-90), Cincinnati (1990-92), and Milwaukee (1993). His finest season came in 1987, when he rang up 16 homers and 79 RBI, while leading NL second basemen with a .992 fielding pct. A graduate of Cincinnati's Mt. Healthy High School, Bill played college ball at Miami University in Oxford, OH.

He and his wife, Lori, have three children (Dana, Amy, and Ryan).

George Foster - Outfield/Hitting Instructor

One of the greatest sluggers in Reds' history, George Foster, 49, returned to the organization in the fall of 1996. He works with Reds' prospects throughout the Cincinnati farm system. Foster hit 348 home runs during his 18-year ML career, and his best seasons came with the Reds (1971-81). In 1977, Foster earned NL MVP honors when he set Reds' single season records for both homers (52) and RBI (149). From 1976-80, Foster averaged 35 homers and 116 RBI. He has twice as many upper deck home runs (6 into the "red seats") as any hitter in Riverfront/Cinergy Field history.

Mike Griffin - Pitching Coordinator

Mike Griffin enters his 3rd season as Reds' minor league pitching coordinator, and 9th overall in the Reds' system. Prior to assuming his current duties, he spent three seasons as pitching coach for AAA Indy (1993-95). Griffin, 40, pitched 14 years in pro ball, including ML stops with the Yankees, Cubs, Padres, Orioles, and Reds. He appeared in 67 ML games. Mike enjoyed a fine minor league career, highlighted by earning Pitcher of the Year honors in 1977, when he led the Western Carolina League with 17 wins. Mike and his wife, Denise, have two children: Kim and Brad.

Jim Hickman - Hitting Coordinator

Jim Hickman enters his 11th season as the Reds' minor league hitting coordinator. A 13-year major league veteran, Jim played from 1962-74, mainly as an outfielder and first baseman. With major league stops in New York (NL), Los Angeles, Chicago (NL), and St. Louis, Hickman, 60, ripped the RBI single in the 1970 All-Star game which sent Pete Rose into his famous game-ending collision at home plate with catcher Ray Fosse. Jim also enjoyed a three-homer game for the Mets in 1965. He and his wife, Nita, have four sons (Jim Jr., Bill, Joe, and Mike.)

Lemmie Miller - Roving Instructor

In 1998 Lemmie Miller enters his first season in the Reds organization. He will work with players at all levels of the farm system, including the Reds Latin American affiliates in the Dominican Republic and Mexico. The 37-year-old Miller played professionally for 12 seasons, and reached the major leagues with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1984. He has a wealth of coaching experience, having worked with players at the Junior College, high school and international levels. In addition to instructing at the Mexican Baseball

Academy in Monterrey, Miller also coached Team USA in the 1995 Area Code Games in Seoul, South Korea and Osaka, Japan.

Jim Thrift - Offensive Coordinator

Jim Thrift was promoted to his current position in December of 1997. He had spent the previous four seasons as hitting coach for the AAA Indians. As offensive coordinator, he will work with players throughout the Reds system. Jim, 35, began his coaching career in 1986 with Pittsburgh's Gulf Coast League club, then went on to manage the Pirates' Florida instructional team in 1987. Jim has also managed Princeton in 1988, Peninsula in 1989, and Kingsport in 1990. He spent two seasons (1991-92) as manager of the Mets' single-A Pittsfield club. In 1993, he was a coach in the Royals' organization. He and his wife, Michelle, have three children (Ryan, Audrey, and Brandon).

1997 Minor League Recap

The Reds 1997 minor league season saw four of their five minor league affiliates qualify for post-season, and included a championship in the Pioneer League. The AAA Indianapolis Indians qualified for the playoffs for a fourth straight season (the only team in minor league baseball to do so). American Association Manager-of-the-Year, Dave Miley, guided the Indians to a 85-59 regular season record. Their season came to an end in the first round of the playoffs, when they fell to Buffalo, three games to two. The Indians also produced three post-season All-Stars - INF Aaron Boone, INF Damian Jackson, and RHP Giovanni Carrara.

The AA Chattanooga Lookouts finished 70-69 and in fourth place in the Southern League, and got impressive seasons out of 2B Jason Williams (.310 BA), INF Pete Rose Jr. (.308 BA, 25 HR, 98 RBI), and post-season All-Star C Justin Towle (.309 BA, 70 RBI). Class A Burlington qualified for the Midwest League playofts after capturing the first half title with a 39-31 record. 1B Darron Ingram led the Bees with 29 homers, and led the league with 97 RBI.

The Reds South Atlantic League club at Charleston, WV finished first in both halves, but eventually fell in the second round of the playoffs. RHP Buddy Carlyle went 14-5 with a 2.77 ERA and also tossed a no-hitter. Post-season All-Stars C Jason LaRue (.315 BA, 81 RBI), and 1B Jason Parsons (.311 BA, 20 HR, 102 RBI) helped lead the offense.

Under manager Donnie Scott, the Billings Mustangs earned the Pioneer League Championship, after going 39-32 in the regular season, and 4-0 in the playoffs. A team composed mostly of Reds' June free agent draft selections, the club was led by staff ace Scott Williamson (8-2, 1.78 ERA, 86.0 IP, 101 SO), and offensively by OF Mike Frank (.376 BA, 10 HR).

Notable Minor League Feats in 1997

Team

Indianapolis has gone 70-34 (.673) at home since the opening of Victory Field in 1996.

At the Class A level alone, the Reds boasted 11 mid-season All-Stars and three 1st-place finishes (Burlington 1st half, Charleston both halves.)

Five of the Pioneer League's Top 10 prospects came from the Reds' Billings affiliate.

Individual

On May 4, Charleston's Buddy Carlyle fired a no-hitter.

Combined no-hitter for Indy's Pedro A. Martinez, Felix Rodriguez, and Scott Service in 1-0 win on May 25. Chattanooga's Jason Williams broke a Southern League record by going 6x6 on July 15.

Stephen Larkin hit for the cycle on July 26, going 5x5 with 5 RBI.

Ted Rose moved into the Charleston starting rotation, and went 7-1 with a 1.96 ERA in August and September. Marc Suarez, Billings catcher, nailed five would-be base thieves in one game on August 5.

Andre Montgomery swiped 5 bases in a game on April 6 for Charleston. In a June a doubleheader sweep, Indy threw two shutouts. Brett Tomko and Scott Klingenbeck were the starters.

Indianapolis Indians -

(85-59, 2nd place in American Association)

The Reds top farm club won 85 ballgames, bolstered not only by their .681 winning percentage (49-23) at home in Victory Field, but also by a 14-game winning streak beginning in late July. Under league Manager of the Year Dave Miley, the club qualified for the playoffs for their 4th straight season - Indy is the only team in minor league baseball which has earned a playoff berth in each of the last four years.

The team MVP was 3B Aaron Boone, who hit .290 and ranked in the league's Top 5 in homers (4th, 22), runs scored (4th, 79) and extra-base hits (3rd, 56). An exciting late-season addition to the Tribe, SS Damian Jackson, was named the league's best baserunner, best defensive SS, and most exciting player by Baseball America.

The Indy mound staff ranked 2nd in the American Association with a 3.57 team ERA. Individually, lefty Gabe White's 2.82 ranked 3rd, and teammates Giovanni Carrara (3.51)

Scott Klingenbeck (3.96) were also among the league's Top 10.

1997 Final Batting

Chattanooga Lookouts - AA

(70-69, 4th place in Southern League)

The Lookouts got impressive seasons from a pair of infielders, 2B Jason Williams and 3B Pete Rose Jr. Williams arrived in mid-season, and proceeded to bat .310. He also became part of an "all LSU" double-play combo when he teamed with top draft choice Brandon Larson, an infielder and fellow Louisiana State U. product. Rose finished in the Top 10 in all three triple crown categories (9th with a .307 avg., 6th with 25 HR and T5th with 97 RBI), and earned a September call-up to Cincinnati.

The Chattanooga battery featured Southern League and Class AA all-star catcher Justin Towle (,309, 37 doubles) and RHP Todd Williams whose total of 33 saves (2 at triple-A and a league-best 31 at double-A) ranked 3rd in all of minor league baseball.

LEAGUE POST-SEASON ALL-STARS: Catcher Justin Towle
RANKED ASTHE LEAGUE'S BEST BY BASEBALL AMERICA: RHP Todd Williams, best reliever; Mark Berry, best managerial prospect.

Burlington Bees - A

(72-68 - 1st Half: 1st place; 2nd Half: T2nd place, Midwest League)

The Cincinnati organization returned to the Midwest League this summer after a fouryear absence, and the Reds Burlington, IA affiliate took the first-half title before falling in the playoffs.

Powerful Darron Ingram launched 29 home runs (2nd in the league) and led the loop with 97 RBI. Outfielder Brady Clark came back from a 1996 hand injury and finished among the Top 5 in runs (108), hits (149) and batting average (.325). And on the mound, righthander Jayson Peterson, a former 1st-round draft choice, arrived in a trade with the Chicago Cubs and proceeded to lead the Burlington staff in both wins (14) and strikeouts (112).

LEAGUE POST-SEASON ALL-STARS: OF Brady Clark
RANKED AS THE LEAGUE'S BEST BY BASEBALL AMERICA: OF/1B Darron Ingram, best power prospect.

Charleston Alley Cats - A

(76-62 - First Half: 1st; Second Half: 1st in South Atlantic League)

Led by some strong pitching arms and a successful first-year skipper in Barry Lyons, the Charleston (WV) Alley Cats finished first in both halves of the South Atlantic League regular season, then went 3-2 in the playoffs. Righthanded flamethrower Buddy Carlyle went 14-5, including a no-hitter, with a 2.77 ERA. Teammate Ted Rose (RHP) moved into the starting rotation during the second half and finished 11-6, with a 2.51 ERA.

Carlyle & Rose were both throwing to catcher Jason LaRue, whose .315 average was 5th in the league, and whose 50 doubles were tied for 1st in all of minor league baseball. 1B Jason Parsons drove in 102 runs (2nd in the league) and hit .311.

LEAGUE POST-SEASON ALL-STARS: Catcher Jason LaRue, 1B Jason Parsons RANKED ASTHE LEAGUE'S BEST BY BASEBALL AMERICA: RHP Scott Winchester (received in a late-season trade), best relief pitcher; Nick Presto, best defensive shortstop.

Billings Mustangs - Rookie

(39-32 - First Half: 1st ; Second Half: 2nd - Pioneer League Champs)

Cincinnati had a productive June free agent draft, and the results were obvious: Billings won the Pioneer League title, stocked largely with 1997 draftees.

It was the 4th championship for manager Donnie Scott.

Righthander Scott Williamson was the staff ace. He went 8-2, led the league in strikeouts (101 in 86 ip) and ranked 2nd In ERA (1.78). Offensively, OF Mike Frank hit. 376 and was among the league's Top 5 in eight categories, including hits, runs, batting average and RBI. OF Dewayne Wise batted .313, scored 53 runs, and stole a team-high 18 bases, Marc Suarez batted .347 while catching in 62 of the Mustangs' 71 games.

LEAGUE POST-SEASON ALL-STARS: RHP Scott Williamson, SS Travis Dawkins, OF Mike Frank, OF Dewayne Wise

RANKED AMONG THE LEAGUE'S TOP 10 PROSPECTS BY BASEBALL AMERICA: Dawkins (#2), Wise (#3), Frank (#5), Williamson (#7) and LHP Monte Roundtree (#9).

Media Information

PHONE NUMBERS

You may contact the Cincinnati Reds Public Relations office at (513) 421-4510, ext. 4000, 4001, 4002.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

1998 Cincinnati Reds media credentials will be issued only to accredited media members. Reds season credentials will be issued to those media outlets that will cover the Reds on a daily basis only. To request media credentials, please contact Kelly Lippincott in the Reds Public Relations office at (513) 421-4510, ext. 4001. The Reds require a 24-hour notice for all daily credential requests. Credential requests should be sent via fax (513) 421-7342 or by mail (Cincinnati Reds Public Relations, 100 Cinergy Field, Cincinnati, OH 45202) on company letterhead from the sports director or producer. All weekend credential requests must be made by 3:00 pm on the Thursday prior. Under no circumstances are media credentials to be transferred from person to person without the express written permission and approval of the Cincinnati Reds Public Relations office. Violation of this policy may result in informing the National League office of the violation, dismissal of the media member from Cinergy Field, and confiscation of the violator's media credential for the remainder of the 1998 season.

MEDIA CREDENTIAL PICK-UP

Upon approval of credential request, media members may pick up credentials at Gate B at Cinergy Field. Gate B is located on the stadium's west side on street level (lowest level). Gate B is also the media entrance to the stadium.

FIELD ACCESS

Only properly credentialed media members may gain access to the playing field. The field entrance is located directly behind home plate, near the media entrance at Gate B. Media members must clear the field no later than 45 minutes prior to game time. Under no circumstances are credentialed media members permitted to seek autographs on the field of play or in the clubhouse. Violation of this policy may result in informing the National League office of the violation, dismissal of the media member from Cinergy Field, and confiscation of the violator's media credential for the remainder of the 1998 season.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS:

Only properly credentialed media members may gain access to the clubhouse. Both the Reds and visiting team clubhouses are located on Level 1 (Field Level) of Cinergy Field. The Reds dugout is located on the first base side, and may be accessed via the playing field only. Media members are not permitted to access the dugout or clubhouse via the dugout tunnel. Media members are not permitted in the training room, players' lounge, or equipment area in the Reds' clubhouse.

Media Information, Continued

The clubhouse is open to properly credentialed media members three-and-half hours prior to the start of the game, and closes 45 minutes prior to game time. Following the game, the clubhouse will open approximately 10 minutes after the final out.

PRESS BOX

San Francisco

The Reds press box is located on Level 5 of Cinergy Field, directly behind home plate. The press box is accessible from the field level by using the press elevator directly adjacent to the press entrance near Gate B. The press box is open three-and-a-half hours prior to game time. The press dining room, located just past the main press area, is open two hours prior to game time. A buffet dinner is available to all credentialed media members, at a cost of $6.50.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photograph positions are located at each end of the home and visiting dugouts. Special requests to shoot in areas other than the dugouts must be cleared through the Reds Public Relations office. Photographers are not permitted on the field during the game at any time.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS

Reds game notes and statistics will be available in the main press box prior to the start of the game.

1998 Broadcasters

Marty Brennaman

Joe Nuxhall

George Grande

Chris Welsh

Marty Brennaman and Joe Nuxhall return for their 25th season together on the Reds Radio Network. The Reds Radio Network is one of the largest in professional sports, with 48 affiliates in eight states. The flagship station is WLW (AM 700) in Cincinnati. All regular season games are aired on WLW.

Marty Brennaman, who also calls play-by-play for Reds TV broadcasts on FOX Sports Ohio, is a 33-year veteran of the broadcast business. Since making his Reds debut in February of 1974, Marty has been named Sportscaster of the Year in Ohio 11 times after earning that honor four times in Virginia. His son, Thom, was named in December of 1995 as the first-ever voice of the Arizona Diamondbacks.

Joe Nuxhall, a former Reds pitcher and member of the Reds Hall of Fame, is in his 32nd year as a Reds announcer. Joe pitched for 16 years in the big leagues (1944, 1952-66), including 15 years with the Reds. In 1944 he became the youngest player ever to appear in the Major Leagues, at the age of 15 - a record that still stands today. Joe began his broadcasting career with the Reds in 1967.

For the next seven seasons, FOX Sports Ohio (formerly known as SportsChannel) will hold the exclusive local cable and telecast rights for Cincinnati Reds baseball. FOX Sports Ohio, will cablecast 50 games in 1998, while distributing another 45 via the Reds Television Network.

George Grande, a 30-year veteran of the broadcasting business, has been the play-by-play voice on Reds TV since 1993. A native of New Haven, CT, George has covered Major League baseball since 1989. He also anchored the first-ever ESPN SportsCenter telecast on September 7, 1979.

Chris Welsh, who pitched in the big leagues from 1981-83 and 1985-86 with the Padres, Expos, Rangers, and Reds, compiled an overall record of 22-31 with a 4.45 ERA in 122 games. Chris made his debut with Reds TV in 1993. The 41-year-old native of Wilmington, DE, is also the writer and publisher of a monthly publication called the "Thinking Pitcher".

Directions To Cinergy Field

FROM I-75 SOUTH: Follow signs to Downtown (exit onto I-71 North), then exit at Pete Rose Way (exit 1B). Turn left off ramp. Cinergy Field garage is on the right.

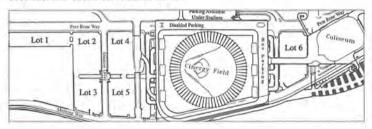

FROM I-75//71 NORTH: Cross over Brent Spence Bridge into Downtown (bearing right while crossing over bridge). Exit at Pete Rose Way (exit 1B). Turn left off ramp. Cinergy Field garage is on the right.

Cinergy Field Parking

There are four entrances to the Cinergy Field Parking Garage - one at each corner of the stadium. Two north entrances are located on Pete Rose Way, and two south entrances located on Mehring Way. The entrances on Mehring Way tend to have less traffic. From Pete Rose Way, go to the south side of the stadium via Broadway or Stadium Drive for Southeast and Southwest entrance access.

LOTS 1-5; West of Cinergy Field between Pete Rose Way and Mehring Way. To access, go south on Stadium Drive - entrance on left and right. Features 1,500 parking spaces. Cost to Park: $5.00.

LOT 6: East of Cinergy Field between Pete Rose Way and Mehring Way. Access from Mehring Way near Southeast entrance to the garage. Features 400 paved spaces. Cost to Park: $5.00. For additional information on Cinergy Field parking facilities, please call Central Parking System at (513) 352-5432.

Cinergy Field Ground Rules

FOUL SCREEN: Any ball hitting foul screen in left or right field - HOME RUN.
THE OUTFIELD: Any ball bouncing over fence - TWO BASE HIT. Any ball hit down right or left field line and bouncing into box seats in stands - TWO BASE HIT. Batted ball must clear (not strike) yellow line atop outfield fence to be considered a home run.
FIELD TARP: Ball remaining behind or underneath tarp - ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by fielder. TWO BASES on batted ball, otherwise in play. Fielder may make catch standing on tarp.

DUGOUTS: Everything is play unless the ball goes into the dugout.

Major League Baseball Rules of Interest

Calculating the "Magic Number": Determine the number of games to be played by the team in the lead. Add one to that number. Subtract from that figure the number of games ahead in the loss column from the closest opponent.

Determining Earned Run Average: Multiply earned runs by nine, then divide total by innings pitched.

Determining Batting Average: Divide total hits by total at-bats.

Determine Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total number of at-bats.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Divide hits + walks + hit by pitch, by at-bats + walks, + hit by pitch + sac flies.

Determining Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

The Winning Pitcher: The starting pitcher will be credited with the win only if the pitcher has pitched at least five complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. EXCEPTION: The "must pitch five complete innings" rule in respect to the starting pitcher, shall be in effect for all games of six or more innings. In a five-inning game, credit the starting pitcher with a game won only if he has pitched at least four complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. When the starting pitcher does not meet the preceding criteria and more than one relief pitcher is used, the victory shall be awarded on the following basis:

(1) When, during the tenure of the starting pitcher, the winning team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game, credit the victory to the relief pitcher judged by the official scorer to have been the most effective.

(2) Whenever the score is tied, the game becomes a new contest insofar as the winning and losing pitcher is concerned.

(3) Once the opposing team assumes the lead, all pitchers who have pitched up to that point are excluded from being credited with the victory except the current pitcher.

(4) The winning relief pitcher shall be the one who is the pitcher of record when his team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game. EXCEPTION: Do not credit a victory to a relief pitcher who is ineffective in a brief appearance, when a succeeding relief pitcher pitches effectively in helping his team maintain the lead. In such cases, credit the succeeding relief pitcher with the victory.

Earning a Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all of the following conditions;

(1) He is the pitcher that finished the game won by his team.

(2) He is not the winning pitcher.

(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

 a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or

 b. He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batters he faces), or

c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Assists: An assist shall be credited to each fielder who throws or deflects a batted or thrown ball in such a way that a putout results, or would have resulted except for a subsequent error by an fielder. Only one assist and no more shall be credited to each fielder who throws or deflects the ball in a run-down play which results in a putout, or would have resulted in a putout, except for a subsequent error.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive game hitting streak shall not be terminated if the player's plate appearance(s) results in a base on balls, hit batter, defensive interference or sac bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sac fly and no hit. Consecutive game hitting streaks do not carry over from season to season.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from the game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirement of this rule, the streak shall continue.

Suspended Games: All performance in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

Rain Delays: Once a game has been temporarily delayed by rain, NL umpires have been instructed to wait at least one hour and 15 minutes before calling the game. They shall wait at least 45 minutes for a second delay and 30 minutes for all subsequent delays. National League Curfew: There is no curfew in the National League. The game is in the hands of the umpires once it has started.

Major League Year: 172 days of service time constitutes a full year in the Major Leagues. Rookie Status at The Major League Level: To be considered a rookie, a player must not have more than 130 at-bats, or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a major league roster during the major league 25-player limit (excluding time in the military).

Medical Glossary

AC Joint (Acromioclavicular joint): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct: Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion: Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess: An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adhesion: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic: Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate. Anabolic Steroids: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormones).

Anaerobic: Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts

of vigorous exercise

Anaphylactic Shock: Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament: A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is often times subject to sprain. Anti-Inflammatory: Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arteriogram: A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram: X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope: An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration: The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Asymptomatic: Without symptoms.

Atrophy: To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy. Avascular Necrosis: Death of a part due to lack of circulation. Avascularity: When controlling bleeding.

Avuision: The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Axilla: The armpit.

Bennett's Fracture: A fracture and dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal, the thumb.

Blowout Fracture: A fracture of the cavity containing the eyeball and its associated muscles that can be a result of a direct blow to the eye or cheek.

Bone Scan: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress on the scan image. fractures.

Brachial Plexus: Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand and fingers.

Bruise: A discoloration of the skin due to an extavasation of blood into the underlying tissues. Bursa: A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimized the friction; for example between a tendon and bone. P.R.: Cardiopulmanary Resuscitation; artificial establishment of circulation of blood and movement of air into the lungs in a pulseless, non-breathing person.

Calcaneofibular Ligament: The ligament that connects the fibula to the calceneous. Calf: Large muscle located at the back of the shin that includes the gastrocnemius and the soleus muscles and is connected to the heel by the Achilles tendon.

Capsule: An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartillage: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating. CAT Scan: Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data. Cellulitis: Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae: Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Charley Horse: A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intamuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture: Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone. Chondromalacia: Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the patella, which can occur in any patellofemoral injury.

Clavicle: The collar bone.

Coccyx: The "tail bone"; a group of four vertebrae that are fused together, located at the terminal end of the spine.

Colles' Fracture: A fracture of the distal end of the radium with the lower end being displaced backward.

Computed Tomography (CT): Method of visualizing the body's soft tissues. Using x-rays with the beam passing repeatedly through the body part, the CT scans while a computer calculates tissue absorption at each point scanned.

Concentric Muscle Contraction: A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion: Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of egulibrium.

Congenital: Existing before birth; to be born with.

Conjunctivitis: Inflammation of the membrane lining the eyelids and covering the eyeball.

Connective Tissue Theory: Microscopic tissue trauma, thought to be brought on by explosive or ballistic movements.

Contractures: Abnormal, usually permanent contraction of a muscle due to atrophy of muscle fibers, extensive scar tissue over a joint, or other factors.

Contusion: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids: Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Costochondral: Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

CPM: Constant passive motion devices used in the early stage of knee rehabilitation. Cranium: Framework of the head consisting of eight cranial bones, 14 bones of the face and the teeth.

Cryokinetics: Treatment with cold and movement. Cryotherapy: A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst: Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease: Changes in joint surfaces as a result of trauma.

Dehydration: Loss of body water.

Deltoid Ligament: Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle: Muscle at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral: A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Distal: Term referencing one anatomical term away from another; for example, the hand is distal to the elbow. Dorsiflexion: Ankle motion such that the foot and loes are moved away from the ground in an upward fashion. The back; the back surface of any part.

Dysfunction: Unable to function normally as a body organ or system.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction: An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; often times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis: Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Ectomy: Suffix connoting surgical removal of the affected part.

Edema: Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Efferent: Away from, pushing toward the center.

Effusion: Accumulation of fluid, or the knee itself, in various spaces in the body.

Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS): An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG): Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis: Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride: "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Etiology: Study of the cause of injury and disease. Eversion: Action of the ankle turning outward.

Extension: Action of straightening of a joint as achieved by an extensor muscle.

External Rotation: Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside. Extrinsic: From without, Femur: Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula: Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility: The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise: Exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Flexion: Motion of bending a joint as achieved by a flexor muscle.

Fracture: Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Glenohumeral: The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus and labrum.

Glenold: Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to the form the shoulder girdle.

Glenold Labrum: A rim of fibrocartilaginous tissue attached around the margin of the glenoid fossa.

Glycogen: Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted. Grade Two Injury: A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue. Grade Three Injury: A severe injury in which tissue has been significant, and in some cases, totally torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Groin: Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

Hammer Toe: Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle than the remaining digits of the same toe.

Hamstring: Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee and is often times injured as a result of Improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps: Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion: Mild form of shock due to to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity. Heat Stroke: Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat resulting in death if not cared for. Heel Cup: Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hemarthrosis: Accumulation of blood within a joint as a result of an acute injury. Hematoma: Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in Hip Pointer: Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus: Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy: Treatment using water.

Hyperextension: Extreme extension of a limb or body part,

Iliac Crest: Lateral edge of the hip; generally the site of a hip pointer.
Induced Erythrocythemia: "Blood doping."

Inferior: Anatomically beneath, lower, or toward the bottom.

Inflammation: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function. Innervation: The distribution/supply of nerve fibers/e impulses to a part of the body.

Internal Rotation: Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Interosseus Membrane: Uniting membrane between the tibia and fibula that forms a collagenous fibrous tissue. It has two functions; to serve as an origin for many of the muscles of the lower leg, and to transmit stress from the tibia to the fibula. Intrinsic: Inherent or inside.

Iontophoresis: The use of constant direct current to drive heavy metal ions into and through the skin.

Isokinetic Exercise: Form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of limb movement is controlled by a pre-set limiting machine, such as Cyubex or Biodex. Isometric Contraction: Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done.

Isotonic Contraction: A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part, as in lifting a weight.

"Itis": Suffix connoting inflammation.

Joint Mobilization: Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanisms can occur as the player moves

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidule): The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder.

A lip-edged or lip-like structure.

Lateral: To the outside of the body.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint,

Lesion: Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae: Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Lumbosacral: Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine. Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries. Manipulation: A passive movement using physiological or accessory motion which may be applied with a thrust or when the player is under anesthesia.

Maximal Aerobic Power (MAX VO 2): The maximal volume of oxygen consumed per unit of time.

Medial: To the inside of the body.

Medial Collateral Ligament: Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

Meniscectomy: An intra-articular surgical procedure for the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus: Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." there are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals: Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals: Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Morbidity: An illness or abnormal condition or quality.

Morton's Neuroma: Involves the nerves and is usually the result of a trauma to the foot, causing inflammation and sharp pain, usually between the third and fourth toes. Morton's Toe: A hereditary condition in which the second toe is longer than the first toe. This can cause mechanical imbalances which produce pain with weight bearing. Myositis: Inflammation of a muscle.

Myositis Ossificans Traumatica: A benign ossification, usually following severe trauma to a large muscle mass.

Negrotic: Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene: Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation to the area. Neuritis: Inflammation of a nerve.

Olecranon Process: Bony projection of the ulna at the tip of the elbow.

Orthotic: Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dessicans: A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Osteomyelltis: An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus.

Parasthesia: Sensation of numbness or tingling, indication of nerve irritation.

Patella: The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis: Inflammation of the patellar ligament.

Patellotemoral Joint: Articulation of the kneecap and femur.

Pectorals: Chest muscles beneath breast that lead up to the shoulder.

Phalanx: Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges. Phiebitis: Inflammation of a vein.

Phonophoresis: Technique of driving whole molecules of medication with ultrasound.

Plantar: Pertaining to the sole of the foot.

Plantarflexion: Ankle motion such that the toes are pointed toward the ground. Plica: Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury. Pneumothorax: Collection of air or gas in the pleural space causing lungs to collapse.

Posterior: At the back part, or rear of the body.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL): A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Progressive Resistance Exercise (PRE): An approach to exercise whereby the load or resistance to the muscle is applied by some mechanical means and is quantitatively and progressively increased over time.

Pronation: In the foot, it is a combination of motions resulting in a position such that the foot is abducted and everted. Foot pronation can be a by-product of an arch problem, leg length discrepancy, or chronically bad running mechanics; can be compromised with the use of an orthotic.

Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation (PNF): An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Proximal: Near the source, nearest any point being described.

Q-Angle: Normal angle of quadriceps relative to the patella. The normal angle for males is 10 degrees.

Quadricep Muscles: A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension. Radiography: Taking of x-rays.

Radlus: Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction: Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain: Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Resect: To cut off, or cut out a portion of a structure or organ.

Retraction: The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff: Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

SC Joint: Sternoclavicular joint; articulation of the collarbone with the sternum.

Sacrolllac: Junction of the sacrum with the hip bone.

Sacrum: Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the lower back.

Scapula: Shoulder blade.

Sciatica: Irritation of the siatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve: Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body. Shin Splint: A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Soft Corn: A corn, softened by moisture, that is found beneath the toes rather than on the upper surface of the toe.

Sorbothane: An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm Theory: Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain Spinous Process: A small projection off the posterior portion of each vertebra that functions as an attachment site for muscles or ligaments of the spine.

Spleen: Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylltis: Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylollsthes: Forward displacement of one vertebra over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis: Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain: Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint which causes various degress of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum: The breast bone.
Steroids: Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances.

Strain: Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture: A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-Ray: A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries

Stretching: Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Superior: In anatomy, the upper of two parts; toward the top or above.

Supination: Movement of the forearm into a palm-up position.

Synchronous: Moving or operating together at the same rate.

Synovlal Fluid: Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint.

Synovitis: Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

Talus: The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint. Target Heart Rate: A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals: Group of six bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ): The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body. Tendinitis: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon: Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow: General term for lateral elbow strain.

Thermotherapy: Use of heat to treat a disease or disorder.

Thoracle: Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulated with the twelve ribs

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome: A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia: Larger of the two bones of lower leg and the weight-bearing bone of the shin. Tomograph: A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea: The windpipe.

Transverse Process: Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebra that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine. Trapezius: Flat, triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps: Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna: Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve: Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing. Ultrasonography: Process by which the reflection of high-frequency sound waves is used to develop an image of a structure.

Valgus: Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus: Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasoconstriction: Decrease of local blood flow. Vasodilation: Increase of local blood flow.

"Wind Knocked Out": Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Zygoma: The cheekbone.

Ed Smith Stadium

New Spring Training Home of the Cincinnati Reds

Ed Smith Stadium, considered one of the finest spring training facilities in all of major league baseball, is the new home of the Cincinnati Reds for the 1998 season.

Ed Smith Stadium and the surrounding complex is owned by the city of Sarasota, FL, and offers a wide variety of available space. The complex consists of four major league training fields, a practice infield, and covered batting tunnels.

The stadium itself has a seating capacity of 7,500, and surrounding parking areas can accomodate 2,000 cars. Ed Smith Stadium has 6,500 arm chair seats and 1,000 bleacher seats.

The Reds moved their spring training and Florida Instructional League operations to Sarasota from Plant City, FL, where the club had trained since 1987.
